

Your roadmap to walking in God's peace while managing your finances with clarity and confidence.

GRACE2SAVE FLOW MAP™

The Daily Peace Check-In

Why we do this:

Financial clarity begins with a quiet heart. When we check our numbers before we check our spirit, we often make decisions out of fear, lack, or impulse. By bringing this map out daily—or every single time you open your banking app—you are intentionally inviting God's perspective into your pocketbook.

This practice shifts you from a survival mindset to a stewardship mindset. You are never alone; the Holy Spirit is your Helper, sent to give you strength and comfort in your financial planning. When you align with Grace Provisions, you gain the mental and spiritual margin to see opportunities you would otherwise miss when you're overwhelmed.

Instructions for Daily Use:

Keep it Visible: Print this and keep it where you do your bills or in your daily planner.

The 2-Minute Rule: Before you look at any transaction, perform Step 1: Pray and complete the Peace Tracker.

Partner with the Helper: Lean on the Holy Spirit for the self-discipline to stick to your plan and the comfort to stay calm during financial storms.

The Peace Tracker

1. Today's Heart Alignment: (Circle one)

Anxious (I feel behind) | Hopeful (I see progress) | Empowered (I am in control with God)

2. The Truth Proclamation: (Speak it out loud)

"My worth is not found in my wealth. I have a spirit of power and a sound mind because the Holy Spirit is my Helper. I trust in Grace Provisions to meet my every need."

3. The Surrender Circle: Write one specific bill, debt, or worry causing you "noise" right now. Hand the weight of it back to the Father.
