Foreword

God does not make mistakes and the proof is that this book is in your hands today.

For me, today is the second book I am writing, and because it is a very special day and because it is Sunday, I want to dedicate these lines to God.

To have faith, one must first understand what it is.

Faith is certainty without evidence, but not blind certainty without any theoretical, practical or scientific basis.

Since the beginning of civilization, human beings collectively have left evidence of their relationship with the divinity or God throughout history, but it is precisely on the basis of certain individual experiences that God has manifested, revealed, communicated, contacted and ultimately, known by humanity throughout the ages, those experiences that are in themselves affirmations that nothing is impossible for God, and precisely for that reason God exists.

When I decided to serve God or to live serving God, I did not ask anyone for permission because God did not give me any choice.

Javier Clemente Engonga

One day three months ago I decided to start writing and suddenly there were already more than two hundred books, and every day the discipline of routine, exercise, and family relationships make writing one more job, one more project, within the initiatives of entrepreneurship and specifically of e-commerce in the publishing business.

I certainly never thought I could write two titles in one day, or one title every day, but when you live looking only to God, time simply stands still.

I in no way think I am smarter than anyone else, for the only competence that matters to me is my own conscience.

Life is a great test of positive endurance, in which we must only hold on to the positive in terms of long term results, and walk towards the direction that brings us more peace and love in everything we do.

Thank you for reading these lines.

Javier Clemente Engonga,

11.07.2021

Javier Clemente Engonga

Dear God:

I want to take advantage of these lines to say one thing and for the world to hear me well, loud and clear:

I have done nothing, you have done everything; I do nothing, you do everything; And I am afraid of nothing, nor of anyone who is not stronger than you, and no one is greater, stronger and more powerful than you.

God is the faithful Father to all who seek Him, and to God I thank Him for always being faithful to me.

My God, You are Great.

Socioeconomic satisfaction creates political stability, socioeconomic dissatisfaction creates political instability:

There has never been any state, country or region that has had political stability with socioeconomic dissatisfaction.

A GREAT GOD

GOD, YOU ARE MY STRENGTH
Javier Clemente Engonga

PRAYER

Loving Father who guides me each day, you who lift me up and care for me and teach me; do not leave me alone without your help this day, and let me succeed in all that I do.

Amen.

Javier Clemente Engonga

It is easy to conclude that God is the greatest enigma for humanity, but when you live every day in front of the Gates of Heaven, it is not easy to start a different path from ordinary life.

When you look for God in your life, He takes care of manifesting Himself and putting you to the test, in such difficult times.

God's tests are unquestionable, they seem insurmountable but in reality they are only small steps that bring us closer and closer to his truth, the truth of spirituality and the impact of that reality on the individual and collective destiny of humanity.

God is the Messenger and the Message, He is the Father, the Son

GOD, YOU ARE MY STRENGTH
Javier Clemente Engonga

and the Holy Spirit; He is the Mother and the Daughter, He is all that exists in Nature.

God has not created anything that can harm us, because God is the Creation, created to serve the human being in his mission of manifestation of the irrevocable plan of the Creator.

That is the plan that has us so confused, in rhetorical questions that in the end do much harm and create even more differences on things that should be very clear, because to speak of God words are enough.

To speak of God and to live with God we only have to be grateful, and to be pious with our judgments of reason towards others, who are only people like us, in search of their perfection and of their Creator, who is the same.

Evil causes God to occasionally leave us on our own and without His help and guidance we wander through life searching for ourselves in that attempt to find God.

But the Creator is everywhere even in his own creation, and his judgment escapes all human reason, and from heaven and earth he rules as the Great Emperor, and makes the world seem a simple thing and miracles a matter of Faith alone.

The world has long forgotten how wonderful it is to live in awe of the contemplation of the wonders of the

GOD, YOU ARE MY STRENGTH
Javier Clemente Engonga

creations of God the Creator, but human history and social and anthropological culture in its literature and other forms shows us that it has always been the goal of every human social group in the most sacred of its socio-cultural practices, the veneration of the divinity of God and his manifestation.

God always manifests himself in amazing ways and makes the most difficult things really seem the easiest, and leads our paths as the master that he is in our lives making it clear that he alone is the God of humanity.

Javier Clemente Engonga

For those who do not have faith and are Christians God is that resource that everyone remembers in the worst of times and very few people in the best of times.

GOD, YOU ARE MY STRENGTH

neither liberating a country nor building a

MIRACLE LIFE

Javier Clemente Engonga

PRAYER

My God, I am glad because I have seen your face. Always save your deer from its mime, and always watch over this world that belongs to you; and may the innocent always rise up victorious before their oppressors, and thus may your justice always be done.

Amen.

Life gives us the opportunity every day to be the best version of who we are as souls who are here to serve the Creator's plan.

When we are attuned to the harmony of serving God, our life is filled with joy and we feel blessed and smile in the hallmark.

The Creator is, another name for the absolute consciousness of the All that is both the Creation and the Creator Himself, which in essence is the intelligent immaterial unity that gives existence to all that exists and is tangibly seen.

The life of a man or woman of God is not easy, it is a path full of obstacles as is the path of every entrepreneur.

The life of a person of God is a struggle that is overcome only when one has totally lost the fear of losing, and simply defeats, always, everything that attempts against our harmony and peace.

It is an understanding of the complete mission that as people of God we are called to fulfill in a conscious way in favor of the divine plan.

It is the understanding that nothing happens by chance and that God is not the stuff of the collective imagination but the creative substance of it.

GOD, YOU ARE MY STRENGTH
Javier Clemente Engonga

Without the thirst for knowledge that comes with that long search and journey towards divinity, the truth is that God has always walked alongside his creation and the more we study and understand ancient cultures, the more we see the greater religious and spiritual ignorance in the present.

In ancient times, societies had a more complete and less syncretized knowledge of spiritual systems and lived in accordance with a particular and direct social link with their concept of deity, divinity and ruler of their destinies.

Thus, life was never understood as a mistake in which each individual lived a contagious hell that became a great collective hell for all mankind.

GOD, YOU ARE MY STRENGTH
Javier Clemente Engonga

A black man cannot be a racist because his life symbolizes the struggle against racism..

Javier Clemente Engonga

Freedom cannot be killed or fought against,
for freedom is neither a person, nor an idea, nor a thing: Freedom is Truth, the only truth that matters.

GOD, YOU ARE MY STRENGTH
Javier Clemente Engonga

In short, so many things have been missing that everyone has forgotten that everything is done in its own time, and you can't do everything at the same time, just as you can't do everything wrong all the time.

Africa is so dependent on the West that it has forgotten that it can be independent and has Stockholm syndrome.

Equatorial Guinea is an independent country.

Javier Clemente Engonga

Intelligent people have no reason to steal, because they are creative and know how to generate wealth even in poverty, that is,
they are self-sufficient:

That is the greatest wealth of Equatorial Guinea, the intelligence of its children, of its inhabitants.

GOD, YOU ARE MY STRENGTH
Javier Clemente Engonga

Message:

The truth is an open secret and that is why everyone is looking for it but not everyone finds it, and some just hide it.

Javier Clemente Engonga

FORTRESS OF LIGHT

GOD, YOU ARE MY STRENGTH
Javier Clemente Engonga

MESSAGE:

History is precisely the justification that this world deserves a big change.

Javier Clemente Engonga

PRAYER

I pray to You, God, for the blind of the world, that You will open their eyes and they will see.

I ask You God for the deaf of the world, that You open their ears and they may hear.

I ask You God for the dumb of the world, that You open their mouths and let them speak.

I ask You God for the sick of the world, that You may touch their souls and heal them.

AMEN.

Some only remember God when they find themselves at the gates of hell.

Then they begin to think of all that they have done wrong and tend to want to erase their mistakes overnight, but in the end it always doesn't matter.

The important thing is not the detail of the evil that has been done but to be consequent and to try not to err any more.

God does not punish for pleasure but it is the human being who punishes himself for his ingratitude, blindness and lack of conscience.

People unconsciously live lives that always lead them to the undesired direction, until they become conscious.

When we become conscious we begin to free ourselves to think differently, to see differently and to be different.

We become conscious when we understand that there is nothing different between us and others and that if we truly love each other we can transform this world into something that our children and grandchildren can be proud of.

We become conscious when there is nowhere to run and we are between the sword and the wall of God, where we can and should only thank him for everything he gives us infinitely because he loves us, in spite of everything.

GOD, YOU ARE MY STRENGTH
Javier Clemente Engonga

God loves us in spite of the fact that we often do not love ourselves enough, we treat ourselves worse than our enemies, and that is very sad.

Javier Clemente Engonga

It is not enough to dream, because dreams come true when we decide to start creating.

GOD, YOU ARE MY STRENGTH
Javier Clemente Engonga

Integrating who we are with who we want to be is the first step to really do what we can do and go far.

Javier Clemente Engonga

IN DIFFICULT TIMES.

GOD, YOU ARE MY STRENGTH
Javier Clemente Engonga

PRAYER

As every day, I leave my life in your hands, Lord; not because I don't care about anything, but because everything is more important when you take care of it.

Take care of me, just that.

AMEN.

Javier Clemente Engonga

In difficult times there is only one thing you can do to avoid wasting and squandering your time, and that is to work hard.

Although we may not be able to see all the way through all of a sudden, it is true that effort is always the greatest merit.

Hard work is the only option to guarantee the good achievement of the results expected from any business initiative or entrepreneurship.

Such difficult moments should serve as an opportunity to see how far we are willing to go to make our goals, dreams and objectives a reality, always trusting in God.

Success is not a gift, but rather the result of converting all past mistakes into experience, the experience necessary to guarantee in the present that the future will be different and better.

Experience is the accumulation of information and data over a long period of time that makes the performer an expert in that field, no matter what the area or sector.

It is more difficult for an expert to make mistakes than for someone inexperienced and inexperienced.

MESSAGE:

Progress is the destiny of all good organization, and disorder is ordered with organization. And do not be discouraged when they say that we Guineans are the dumbest people in the world because they simply lack objective data, they have not seen the best of our country, because the best of our country is inside, as well as outside. Equatorial Guinea makes the sub-region and the African continent shine even brighter, for we are a country full of Stars of Destiny.

GOD, YOU ARE MY STRENGTH
Javier Clemente Engonga

Some believe that their days are numbered, and others that their days are counted by their adversaries; the former are ordinary men, and the latter are warriors: a warrior's days are not numbered, it is his adversaries who count his days, while his own days are numbered.

Javier Clemente Engonga

Javier Clemente Engonga

THE SHAPE OF LOVE

GOD, YOU ARE MY STRENGTH
Javier Clemente Engonga

Note:

Sometimes the worst is the best, in order to better assess the circumstances and get the maximum learning from them: that is what comes from experience.

Javier Clemente Engonga

PRAYER

Father Creator, I know that nothing is impossible for you, so I ask you to bless the world with your light, and to increase in souls the faith in your love, your power and your light.

AMEN

GOD, YOU ARE MY STRENGTH
Javier Clemente Engonga

God's love transforms the most difficult things in life into apparently easy results.

In fact, when the expected success finally arrives, everyone thinks that it is a matter of chance or good fortune, but many forget the important element of faith in God.

Faith not only moves mountains but makes the most difficult or seemingly impossible things nothing in the light of the truth and strength of the Creator of the Universe, who not only lives in us but also we are part of his being.

We are an intrinsic part of God and therefore created to manifest with our body, mind and energy the reality of divinity and the existence of God and his power also in this plane and material world.

When success comes, many times we forget that it only comes because the God of the universe has willed it and that is precisely why we must always be grateful to that divine energy that guides us, and shows us the way in the darkness like a mother to a child.

The difficulties of the day to day and the difficulties of life should never make us faint because at the end of the day we are only perfect souls in an imperfect world trying to perform daily that perfect task which is to serve the divine plan and be proud of it.

GOD, YOU ARE MY STRENGTH
Javier Clemente Engonga

To serve the divine plan is, in short,
to be the best version of oneself
every day.

Javier Clemente Engonga

Message.

A miracle is an inexplicable or very difficult to explain fact, which sometimes escapes the scrutiny of reason and good sense, because it belongs to the realm of the divine..

GOD, YOU ARE MY STRENGTH
Javier Clemente Engonga

GOD'S GREATNESS

Javier Clemente Engonga

PRAYER

Lord God, I know that your greatness is in the praise of your faithful ones.

So let my praise be to your pleasure, and remove from your deer all reproach, for all I am is your slave, and that is the freedom to be loved by you.

Thank you God, you are Great.

AMEN.

I only know that I know something, even if I don't know everything; he who only knows that he knows nothing, well, good for him, at least I know that I know something, even if I don't know everything.

Javier Clemente Engonga

Javier Clemente Engonga

God's greatness is in the praise of his faithful, that is why it is important to live praising God.

No matter how difficult or hard things get, the most important thing is to praise God.

It doesn't matter if the world around us is crumbling and falling apart and we no longer understand the reality around us and are only looking for a way out every day, none of that matters if we don't praise God.

When sickness, hunger or cold dominate us, when time stands still or passes faster than other days, and the problems add up and we do not seem to find the solution to these situations, none of that matters if we do not praise God.

Praising God is not an option, because that is what we were created for; therefore it is rather an obligation that we must fulfill every day at every step.

We must praise God because it is the right thing to do, it is the natural thing to do in order to live in abundance.

You cannot have everything you want and need if you are not grateful today and already for what you have; because if we do not value what we have today in our hands we will not know how to appreciate what will come to us tomorrow.

That is why today is much more important than tomorrow, because today is the foundation and the beginning of everything that lies ahead.

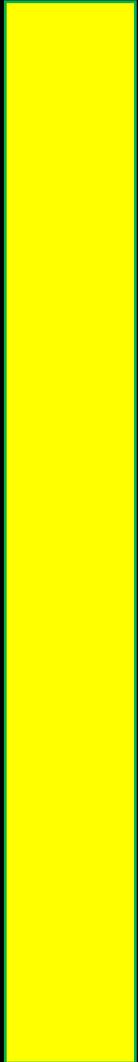

Javier Clemente Engonga

Today is, therefore, the most important day, more important than yesterday, because yesterday no longer means anything.

GOD, YOU ARE MY STRENGTH
Javier Clemente Engonga

MY FRIEND

Javier Clemente Engonga

PRAYER

My Creator God, You have taught me to love, to be and to know; You have given me the freedom to know You.

You have given me peace in the midst of lions and you have given me love in the midst of all difficulties.

Lord, may your light and your love shine in me forever and ever, and may I be called forever and ever your son, son of God, like all the souls who seek you unceasingly in the world, and want only that, to be considered by you as your children, children of God the Father and Mother who created the universe and lives and reigns forever and ever.

AMEN.

Thank you, God, for making this book possible, and I hope it reaches everyone who needs it.

I have decided to live serving you and that does not make life less easy but it does give me the assurance of victory in all battles.

When we are with God we never face life or problems to lose, but to always be victorious.

That is the advantage of men and women who decide to serve God in all their endeavors.

In the end, that God in whom we believe so much also believes and trusts us even more than we believe in ourselves, and that is why He is a God of miracles,

Javier Clemente Engonga

because He likes to see us happy, while we do the right thing every day.

Never stop thanking God for what you have every day, whether it is little or much, give thanks every day, because others are gone or have nothing in their whole life, and it is not that they have a problem with God, they simply have not understood that it is only about giving even if you do not have, sharing even if you do not want to, and living giving thanks to God.

Thank you God, for teaching me that only you are the owner of the world, and only your will is the absolute reality of the world.

Bless this world with peace, bless this world with love, bless this world with prosperity and abundance, bless this world with the glory of your Name and bless the Republic of Equatorial Guinea and Africa, and all the children of Africa in the world with the vision that with God absolutely nothing is impossible.

Thank you Father, for loving me so much.

Javier Clemente Engonga

EPILOGUE

God speaks to us in the silence of our thoughts when our heart and mind are willing to listen.

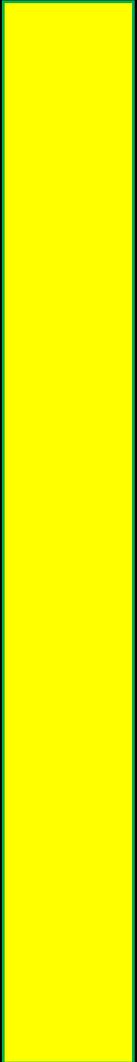

The Holy Spirit is the finger of God, the essence of His divinity in the human soul that shows us a small example of the wonder of living in the joy of God's will.

Give thanks to God every day as you work hard towards your goals, and you will never regret having trusted in the only absolute force and power capable of giving you all that you truly are and forever.

May God bless and protect you always.

Thank you for reading these lines.
