June Speaker

Norman Webb will speak to us on the medicinal properties of honey. He last visited us in April 2023. He is bringing some honey to sell (have cash on you if you want to buy some)..

Some will remember that Norman was a teacher from 1966 up to 2013. His last position was at The Kings School. It was here that he met Ian McLeod who encouraged him to take up beekeeping.

He has hives in Tamworth, Cooma, Nelson, Glenorie, Dural, Middle Dural, North Rocks, Mulgoa and Cobbitty. Most are in isolated spots with little chance of conflict with people. The wide range of locations enables him to extract a range of honey flavours. He has won prizes at The Royal Easter Show, Castle Hill Show and St Ives Show.

He lives in North Rocks with his wife Sandra.
