

Real Estate Law - Title (Examiner/Abstractor) Course

The Real Estate Law: Title Examiner / Abstractor Course provides students with the knowledge and practical skills needed to research, analyze, and report on property titles in real estate transactions. Title examiners and abstractors play a critical role in protecting buyers, sellers, and lenders by ensuring that property ownership is valid, free of defects, and properly documented.

Through this course, students will learn how to navigate public records, trace chains of title, identify liens and encumbrances, and prepare title abstracts and reports used in real estate closings. Special emphasis is placed on understanding deeds, mortgages, easements, restrictions, title insurance, and the ethical responsibilities of working in the real estate industry.
