Tips for Parents

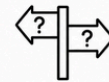

5 Easy Ways to Encourage Young Writers

1. Choice

Let your child choose what they write about.

Kids are more excited to write when they can explore topics they enjoy.

2. Celebrate

Celebrate creative ideas more than perfect spelling. Focus on imagination and effort first. Spelling and grammar skills will improve with practice.

3. Read

Read together every day—even for just 10 minutes. Reading helps children build vocabulary, discover new ideas, and learn how stories are organized, making writing feel easier and more enjoyable.

4. Short and Sweet

Keep writing fun and pressure-free.

Short, positive writing sessions help children build confidence and enjoy the writing process.

5. Be Curious

Ask questions about their stories.

Showing interest and asking questions encourages children to add details, think more deeply, and develop their ideas.
