

The Clouds

S/A	Gently falling rain Falling from the sky Streaming down like tear-drops Tear-drops from on high
S/A	Clouds, oh won't you tell us What those tears are for? Do you weep for something	T/B	(Clouds, oh won't you tell us) (What those tears are for) (Do you weep for something)
All	Something we've ignored?
S/A/T	Could it be that from your lofty post so high above You have seen how little We have given of our love? Do you see the lonely Weary, troubled and the poor?	B B B	(Could it be from your post above) (You have seen how little) (We have given of our love)
All	Have you seen the fighting and the war?	B	(Do you see troubled and the poor)
S/A	Clouds, there must be some way To make your crying cease Share with us the secret	T/B	(Clouds, there must be some way) (To make your crying cease) (Share with us the secret)
All:	Of happiness and peace
S/A/T	Do you mean to say that each of us can play a part? With each spark of love we light A flame of love may start Reaching all around us Giving hope to those we know	B B B	(Do you mean we can play a part) (With each spark of love we light) (A flame of love may start)
All	This, you say, will help true peace to grow?	B	(By giving hope to those we know)
S/A	Clouds, though you are parting Your point you've made quite clear Peace will never happen Unless we start it here Unless we start it here	T/B	(Clouds, though you are parting) (Your point you've made quite clear) (Peace will never happen) (Unless we start it here) (Start it here)
