TEACHING

Teaching/ Teaching Assistantship at the University of Calgary, Canada, 2020-2024

2024	Instructor: Drawing Manifesto , elective graduate course examining the intersection of philosophy, history, and theory in architectural drawing, focusing on drawing as a medium to critique and reclaim historical and cultural narratives. Emphasized embodied practices and global perspectives in representation and design. [link]
2024	Instructor: (with Robb Gilbert), Why Keep Architectural Archives block-week course exploring the history and theory of architectural archives, including the contributions of Western Canada's architectural heritage and its global intersections. Addressed the role of archives in reframing historical narratives and critical engagement with local and Indigenous practices.
2022	PhD TA: Design Thinking in the Built Environment Studio II , undergraduate studio focusing on urban design interventions and critical thinking, integrating historical and theoretical approaches to contextual urbanism and community design. Instructor: Professor Barry Wylant.
2020 & 2021	PhD TA: Design Thinking in the Built Environment Studio I , undergraduate studio introducing architectural composition, drawing, model-making, and critical thinking, with an emphasis on the historical development of spatial practices and their application to contemporary design challenges. Instructor: Professor Barry Wylant.

Teaching at Universities in Iran, 2014-2018

2018	Instructor: Architectural Process and Methods , elective lecture course addressing the dialectics of modernism and traditional Iranian architecture. Explored the impact of modernization on ancient cities and the cultural significance of local practices. Eqbal University.
2018	Instructor: Design Studio I (Postcolonialist Manifesto: The First Impressions of the Contemporary City) , required graduate-level studio focusing on public urban spaces in the margin of a modern development of the city of Mashhad as cultural resistance with a regional approach (Persian architecture). Eqbal University.

2017	Instructor: Design Studio II (Reviving Living Traditions: Rehousing Displaced Extended Families in Historic Fabrics) required graduate studio focusing on rehousing displaced extended families in historic urban fabrics. Using Iranian subtractive architecture as opposed to modernist objectification of urban spaces. Eqbal University.
2015 & 2017	Instructor: Contemporary Architecture , required undergraduate history course addressing imposed westernization over architecture and post-colonial legacies. Eqbal University.
2016	Instructor: Design Studio I (Returning Home: Designing for Minority Refugees Reclaiming Their Neighborhoods) , graduate studio addressing minority refugee housing, emphasizing the adaptive reuse of historical sites under threat of demolition, embracing Iranian courtyard strategies as opposed to modern urbanism. Eqbal University.
2015	Instructor: Design Studio II (Two-Family Dwelling) , required undergraduate studio focusing on the communal and intimate dwelling spaces based on cultural features of Iranian modern families. Eqbal University.
2013 & 2014 & 2016	Instructor: Environmental Understanding and Expression , required foundation workshop integrating perception and representation, teaching students to critically engage with environmental and historical contexts through drawing and design. Azad University and Eqbal University.
2015	Instructor: Architectural Expression II , required foundation workshop focusing on architectural drawing, critical graphics, and analytical techniques to explore historical and theoretical perspectives in architecture. Eqbal University.
2014	Instructor: Architectural Expression I , required foundation workshop focusing on architectural drawing, critical graphics, and analytical techniques to explore historical and theoretical perspectives in architecture. Eqbal University.
2013	Instructor: Introduction to Architectural Design Studio I , required foundation studio emphasizing form-generation techniques, methods of spatial design, and their historical underpinnings. Eqbal University.
2013	Instructor: Construction and Presentation III , required foundation course addressing clay modelmaking, hand-drawing, watercolor rendering, and oral and poetic presentation. Eqbal University.
2012	Instructor: Construction and Presentation II , required foundation course addressing clay modelmaking, hand-drawing, watercolor rendering, and oral and poetic presentation. Eqbal University.
