

Dear Prayer Partners,

Greetings to our dear brothers and sisters. We would like to share some news regarding recent activities here in Bolivia.

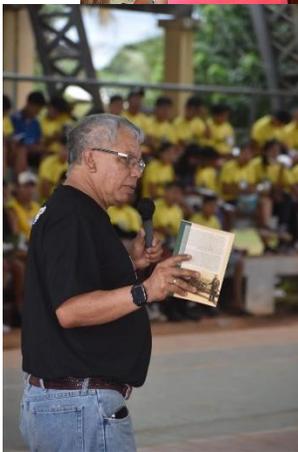

First, we began teaching in our assembly, and by the end of December our boat left with thirty-eight people for a ten-day trip. They did a remarkable job of helping with the ministry and teaching.

At the end of the year, we were able to give colouring books and treats to the children of two churches that we attend.

Next, I left to go to a camp in the Beni shortly after New Year's. There were one hundred and sixty-five young people in attendance, and we distributed a missions book to each of them. The book is about Wally Herron's missionary work in Bolivia; explaining how the gospel arrived to the area. We encouraged the young people to read it, and we trust that many will be challenged to commit their lives to missions. Thank you very much to those who contributed and got the books into their hands.

Meanwhile, I held a meeting with the pastors in that area to assist their churches to present missions.

This weekend, I am traveling to Cochabamba to preach to a church about missions and needs.

Pray for us as we travel a lot, pray for our safety. Pray for the funds that are needed to pay for Cumpliendo Promesa's office in Trinidad.

Thank you for being a member of God's team. We really appreciate your faithful prayers and kind support. May God bless you.
