

BASKETBALL

The teams are registered in the book
The fans have gathered for a look
Now to begin five against five
Each physically fit to survive
They all gather in center
Both teams expect to be a winner
The officials are prepared to make the toss
One team will win the other sustain loss
The jump ball has started the game
Out of bounds, someone is to blame
The crowd roars, the whistle blows
Whos' ball, the official knows
Boos are heard as the call is made
To see the game the fans have paid
Scorers are ready, the clock begins to tick
Team A scores easily and rather quick
The teams continue in a running pace
Up and down as if was a race
Time outs are called to receive a rest
At this point Team A has been the best
Fouls and violations have been called
Technical on the Coach, he's appalled
For the first time has run out
It is a close game, not a rout
After rest the second half will begin
Each team has a chance to win
Play now is serious and intense
Usually, the winner has the best defense
Coaching strategy comes into play
Figuring to score the easiest way
The game now approaches the end
Last second goal, Team B seems to win
Wait Team A has made a score
Now we'll play five minutes more
The officials will earn their pay
It's understood an overtime we'll play
Finally, the horn did sound
On the rim, the ball round and round
All are standing in a shout
Will the ball go in or out
Excitingly it did go in
Team A received the win
The game is over and the crowd clears
Cheerleaders, fans and Team B have tears
Team A will surely celebrate
Team B did congratulate
The officials', now prepare for showers
They've worked over three hours
It over as fast as it begun
Team B lost, Team A won

Written by
Leon Hawker