TOUR ITINERARY

Udaipur — The City of Lakes

Palaces on the water, evenings lit gold

5 Days / 4 Nights • Ex-Mumbai • Thursday to Monday

TRIP OVERVIEW

Udaipur doesn't announce itself — it unfolds. Whitewashed palaces float on still lakes, narrow lanes open onto ghats where the light turns the water to bronze at dusk, and the Aravallis hold the whole city in a soft blue frame. We pick you up in Mumbai on Thursday evening, feed you dinner on the way, and you wake up in Rajasthan. Three unhurried days follow — a sunset ride on Lake Pichola, the vast City Palace, a courtyard of Rajasthani folk performance, and a hilltop palace with the view that made this the Venice of the East. You're back in Mumbai by Monday morning, a full long weekend behind you and barely a day of leave spent.

DAY-WISE ITINERARY

DAY 1	Mumbai — Pickup & Overnight Journey Thursday • Departure • Night Halt: In transit (Night 1 of 4) - Evening pickup from the designated point in Mumbai — the coordinator will share the exact location and reporting time in advance. - Meet your trip coordinator and fellow travellers, settle in, and set off for Rajasthan. - Dinner en route at a clean, comfortable highway stop along the way (included).
-----------------	--

- Overnight journey. Rest up — Udaipur is waiting in the morning.

DAY

2

Arrive Udaipur — Welcome & the Lakes at Dusk

Friday • Arrive morning • Night Halt: Udaipur (Night 2 of 4)

- Arrive in Udaipur on Friday morning. Guests travelling on their own flight or train meet the group at the hotel.
- Transfer to your stay, check in, and freshen up after the journey.
- Late afternoon: a Lake Pichola boat ride — glide past the Lake Palace and Jag Mandir as the sun drops behind the Aravallis and the City Palace catches fire in the light. (boat ticket at actuals)
- Evening: a slow walk along Gangaur Ghat and Ambrai Ghat, the best vantage for the illuminated palace across the water.
- Dinner at leisure at a lakeside café. Overnight in Udaipur.

3

The City Palace, Old-City Temples & a Heritage Evening

Saturday • Local sightseeing • Night Halt: Udaipur (Night 3 of 4)

- Morning: the City Palace complex — Rajasthan's largest palace, a labyrinth of courtyards, mirror-work halls, and terraces with sweeping views over Pichola.
- Jagdish Temple — a soaring 17th-century Indo-Aryan temple in the heart of the old city.
- Saheliyon-ki-Bari — the 'garden of the maidens,' with fountains, lotus pools, and marble pavilions.
- Fateh Sagar Lake — a relaxed lakeside stretch; optional boat to Nehru Island.
- Evening: the Dharohar folk dance & music show at Bagore-ki-Haveli — one of Udaipur's finest cultural experiences, ending with the famous multi-pot Bhavai dance. (show ticket at actuals)
- Dinner and overnight in Udaipur.

4

Sunset Palace, Crafts & the Journey Home

Sunday • Local sightseeing • Night Halt: In transit (Night 4 of 4)

- Morning: drive up to Sajjangarh, the Monsoon Palace, for a panorama over the lakes, the city, and the surrounding hills.
- Vintage & Classic Car Museum — the Mewar royal collection of Rolls-Royces, Cadillacs, and vintage classics.
- Time for handicrafts and souvenirs at Hathi Pol and Bada Bazaar — miniature paintings, silver, Bandhani textiles, and Pichwai art.
- Check-out is in the morning; baggage hold and a place to freshen up are arranged before the evening departure.
- Evening: board the overnight journey back to Mumbai.

Note — pacing & swaps

The exact order of sights on Days 3–4 may be adjusted around temple timings, the Dharohar show schedule, and your departure time on Sunday evening. Nothing listed is dropped unless a site is closed.

DAY

Arrive Mumbai — Send-Off

Monday • Early morning arrival • End of Trip

5

- Arrive in Mumbai early on Monday morning at the designated drop point.
- Say your goodbyes to the group over a last round of chai, and head onward to home or office.
- Trip concludes. Sapno Se Manzil Tak — until the next road.

GOOD TO KNOW

- Carry a government photo ID (Aadhaar / Passport / Driving Licence) — required for hotel check-in and for travel.
- Both journeys are overnight, so you arrive fresh on Friday morning and lose barely a working day.
- Pickup and drop points in Mumbai will be shared by the coordinator ahead of departure — please report on time.
- Hotel check-out is on Sunday morning; the coordinator arranges baggage hold and freshening-up before the evening departure.
- Modest clothing is appreciated at Jagdish Temple and other places of worship.
- Lake boat rides and the Sajjangarh view are weather-dependent; timings shift with light and crowd.
- The Dharohar folk show has limited seating — the coordinator will advise on timing.

WHAT TO CARRY

- Light cottons and comfortable walking shoes — Udaipur involves a fair bit of walking on palace steps and ghats.
- A small overnight bag with essentials for the journey, kept handy.
- Sun cap, sunglasses, and sunscreen (SPF 40+).
- A light layer or shawl for lake evenings and the overnight journey.

- A compact umbrella / rain jacket if travelling in the monsoon months.
- Personal medication, power bank, and a reusable water bottle.
