

Dear Employer,

Join local employers, community leaders, and entrepreneurs for an inspiring morning celebrating self-entrepreneurship, inclusive employment and the value of neurodivergent talent in our workforce.

Event Details

Date: Monday, May 11, 2026

Time: 8:00–9:00 AM

Location: Rotary Centre for the Arts, 421 Cawston Avenue, Kelowna

Enjoy free breakfast and complimentary parking while hearing from a local self-advocate entrepreneur, an inclusive employer, and MentorAbility Canada on innovative hiring practices.

Immediately following breakfast, take part in an exclusive early-bird VIP preview of Kelowna’s first-ever Inclusive Market—a FREE, first-of-its-kind showcase where neurodivergent entrepreneurs will share their products, services, and talents.

Accessibility: Wheelchair accessible with ASL interpretation.

RSVP: Please RSVP by Friday, May 1, 2026, at <https://inclusivemarketkelowna.ca/employers>. Space is limited and registrations are accepted on a first-come, first-served basis. A confirmation email with parking details will be sent once your registration is complete.

We look forward to seeing you!

We extend our gratitude to all our community partners and to Inclusion BC for supporting this event through a MentorAbility Community Grant.
