Make your school a

Movement

If you want to inspire change, build a platform where students become leaders. A space that empowers them to speak, lead, solve, and serve. One that invites them not just to learn — but to transform. A space that's more than a conference. A movement where voices rise, trees grow, and empathy becomes action.

A Youthalic movement.

Subject: Offer to Organise a Youthalic MUN Conference

Dear Sir/Madam,

Youthalic greets you!

We are extremely excited to offer your school the opportunity to host the Youthalic MUN Conference, which is a youth leadership conference that serves students in many regions.

This conference is much more than an academic exercise; it assists students in strengthening their public speaking abilities, acquiring leadership skills, and developing an appreciation of global and social problems.

With its impressive record of achievements in academics and extracurricular activities, your school would be an ideal host. We await your positive response and hope for a strong partnership with you.

Warm regards,
Rithikesh Jaya Prakash
