OUR STORY

In 2019, during the renovation works, a hidden basement was found under all the rubble from the fire nearly 200 years before.

In the old maps, we can see Closes, living quarters, taverns, and even the Royal Bank. Steil's Close regularly features in the maps pre-1824 and disappears thereafter. This is the same with Royal Bank Close and Hangman's Close. They all led into Old Fishmarket Close, which still stands today.

We can't say for certain which Close we have, but we can say it is a Close... Why? It has gradual steps down on foundation stone and leads to a clear arch for those to walk through towards Old Fishmarket Close.

OUR LOCATION

1 Barrie's Close,
Edinburgh,
EH1 1RF

Due to the historic nature of our site, we are not wheelchair accessible. There are no lifts on-site, and the venue features uneven cobblestones and small steps.
