Hotels:

Because Haverford is a smaller school, there aren't a lot of large hotels extremely close to campus. Because of this, we have secured a group rate for a hotel about 12-15 minutes away from campus. The booking link and information is below. If you have any trouble finding accommodations, don't hesitate to reach out!

Fairfield by Marriott Inn & Suites Philadelphia Broomall/Newtown Square

GETTING HERE

Public Transportation

If you are taking a train, you will likely come into 30th Street Station. You can transfer there to another line. Our local transit system is SEPTA. Please visit the SEPTA website or Maps to plan your trip accordingly. Haverford College is conveniently located at the intersection of two different lines. The nearest Regional Rail stations are Haverford and Ardmore. The nearest Norristown High Speed Line is Haverford Road. If you're coming from Philadelphia, we recommend the Regional Rail line and getting off at the Haverford stop.

Parking

There are a number of places to park on campus during the weekend. We recommend the south lot, which is the main lot on campus (follow the signs for "admissions parking"). There are also a few other parking locations, but please be aware that you're parking in an area that isn't reserved for faculty or students.
