INTRODUCTION

WELCOME TO YOUR PRACTICE

Welcome to Your Practice

This journal is a place to meet the cards honestly, to track what they tell you, and to grow sharper, clearer, and more connected every time you use them.

You don't need to be perfect—just consistent. Your accuracy will improve with experience. Your intuition will sharpen the more you trust it.

Whether you're using this journal on its own or alongside The Language of Lenormand, it's designed to support you, page by page.

Let's begin the way all good readings begin: by making a clear agreement—with yourself and your cards.

CREATING A CONTRACT WITH YOUR CARDS

THE IMPORTANCE OF CREATING A CONTRACT WITH YOUR CARDS

Before you begin using this journal, take a moment to consciously establish your personal agreement with the cards.

This is more than just a mental note, it's a sacred contract between you and your deck. You're setting the intention that when you ask a question, the cards will respond clearly, honestly, and in alignment with the truth, consistently, in the ways you expect them to speak. In return, you agree to approach them with respect, consistency, and a willingness to accept what they show you.

This idea of 'making a contract with your cards' is one of the most important principles I teach in my book, The Language of Lenormand. It's the foundation of an accurate, trustworthy practice.

Once you've written or spoken your agreement, you're ready to begin.

TIPS

Helpful reminders and suggestions for working with the cards.

“Make a contract with your cards, so they know how you want to work with them.”

"The question in Lenormand is everything."

"Ask once. The cards will answer."

"Pick your layout and stick to it."

"Always relate the cards back to the question."

"Don't rush to interpret—let the message reveal itself."

"You don't need to ask again, you need to listen."

"When the cards speak, listen. Don't argue with them.

Don't explain them away. Let them be direct. That's their power.."
