

Fire safety daily checklists St Mary's Hospital.

Date: _____

Signature: _____

	Yes	No	NA	Comments
Are there any combustibles stored along the escape routes
Are all escape routes are clear of obstructions and are immediately available for use
Are all fire doors free of obstruction
Are Fire doors wedged or propped open
Are the escape exits visible and easily opened
Are there any warnings or faults showing on the fire detection and alarm panel
Are floor coverings, rugs and mats are fixed or laid so that they do not present a trip or slip hazard during an evacuation, and are not used to prop open doors
Are external areas at, or near, exit doors and external escape routes are kept free of obstructions that might impede escape to a place of safety
Are escape routes adequately lit up by the main lighting and emergency lighting
Are all fire extinguishers and other fire fighting equipment in proper place
Are Staff aware of where hydrant is situated.
ASK Are vehicles blocking fire hydrants or access to them?
Are PEEPS Accessible to all staff
Have residents been included in this CHECK LIST
Are there new staff on duty today that may not be aware of the fire procedures.
Is everyone feeling ok today in relation to fire safety for residents and themselves
Are there any new staff /what support they do need
Have we any fire risks today, do the staff know who to speak to
What is working well for us as team in relation to fire safety
What is not working so well
Is there one thing there we can do to improve fire safety in the centre today.				