

Ethics of Artificial Intelligence

Africa Regional Webinar on AI and Ethics

February 13, 2025

9:00 (Rome Time) - 11:00 AM (Nairobi Time)

Online Webinar: Zoom link

Meeting ID: 869 4947 3160 - Password: 120792

Secure your spot today. Register now!

English-French translation will be provided

Discover the impact of Artificial Intelligence in today's world and its ethical implications, with a focus on Africa and the promotion of human dignity. Engage with academic experts and Catholic community leaders as they explore the challenges and opportunities of AI.

Organized by:

EAiD
ETHICAL AI FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

Program Overview

9:00 (Rome time) – 11:00 AM (Nairobi time)

– Welcome & Opening

Fr. Germain Rajoelison – Deputy Secretary General, SECAM

– Fundamentals of AI

What is AI? Basics & technical insights

Prof. Ricardo Vergaz – Vice-Rector, Uc3m University (Spain)

– The Vatican's Rome Call & AI Ethics in Africa

Ethical principles & their relevance in Africa

D. Andrea Ciucci – Coordinating Secretary, Pontifical Academy for Life (Vatican)

– Ethics & Challenges of AI

Key ethical concerns: accountability, bias & impact

Fr. Dr. Odomaro Mubangizi – Deputy Director, Hekima University (Jesuit University of East Africa)

– AI Potential in Africa

AI solutions for vulnerable communities

Mr. Emmanuel Kweyu – Deputy Director, Strathmore University (Kenya)

– Q&A & Conclusions

Pius Murithi – EAiD, Kenya

Moderator:

Maria Amparo Alonso – EAiD Executive Director