EQUIPPING GENERATIONS FOR LIFE IN CHRIST

MARCH 2025

"One generation shall commend your works to another" Ps 145:4

WORSHIP WED. @ 7PM | SUN. @ 7:45 & 9:30AM

LETTER FROM PASTOR

Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The wise king Solomon teaches in Ecclesiastes chapter 3, "For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven." He then goes on to list the timing and the rhythm of life that God has ordained for his people beginning with "a time to be born, and a time to die." Solomon understands and gives voice to the reality that the things of God are eternal while the things of man are temporary and fleeting. He says, "All go to one place. All are from the dust, and to dust all return."

In just a few days, you will hear those words as a cross of ash is smeared across your forehead. "You are dust, and to dust you shall return." This Ash Wednesday tradition, in stark contrast to the normal more hopeful tone of our worship, is our entrance into the season of Lent. To use a fancy theological term, Lent is a season of penitence. In other words, Lent is a time in the church year when we focus on our sinfulness, the result of our sin (which is death), and our need for a savior. It is a time of deep reflection and prayer as we prepare to celebrate the death of Jesus Christ on Good Friday and his resurrection on Easter morning.

Although the season of Lent may be more somber in tone than much of the rest of our church year, the reflective nature of the season prepares us for the utter joy of our Easter celebrations. The black cross that you will receive on your forehead on Ash Wednesday serves as a dual reminder for you. Because of your sin, you will return to the dust of the earth in death; but because of your Savior, the dust is not your final resting place. The work of Jesus Christ on the cross saved you from your sin and his resurrection won for you eternal life.

As Solomon says, "For everything there is a time... a time to be born, and a time to die... a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn and a time to dance." The Lord has appointed a time for all things. He has appointed a time for each of us when our days in this life will cease. He has also appointed a time when our Savior will return to the earth. A time when, although we are dust, Jesus Christ will call us out of the grave. A time when time will no longer be a concern for us because we are living with God in his kingdom for eternity.

So, this Ash Wednesday, as you hear those solemn words "You are dust, and to dust you shall return" and as you feel the cross traced on your forehead, and when you are reminded of the cross a couple hours later when you accidentally smudge it across your shirt sleeve, I pray that you find hope in the fact that the Lord has appointed a time for all things. He has given us this Lenten season as a time for reflection and spiritual growth. He has given us forgiveness for all the times when we slip into sin. He has appointed a time when we will return to the dust. And there will come a day when the Son will return and we will be raised from the dust to everlasting life.

*In Christ,
Pastor Jed*

Hello Zion Family,

This March we are putting Zion's Kingdom Vision front and center again as we talk about some exciting and beneficial changes with services and confirmation. As a parent, I make an effort to send my two youngest children to Sunday School and my eldest son to Donuts and Devos, but currently, there is no "place" for me as a parent of these young ones to also spend time in the Word between services. I see the connections that my children make with friends (from Zion and from public schools) during these times, and the opportunity they have to socialize and talk about their faith, and would love to see that for the parents as well. We are the body of Christ, as members we should know each other! That opportunity may very well happen soon, with the encouragement to extend the time between services to allow for Bible study time for all ages.

Why is it important that parents are spending time in the Word as well? The impact of parents on the faith life of their children has been shown to be significantly more impactful than the influence of any other adult, pastors included! If you've read one of my newsletter articles before, you've heard me talk about Households of Faith by the Barna Group. Their statistics are super interesting in this matter. Especially how moms are even more influential than dads. Sorry dads, moms just are the nurturers in the house! How much more equipped would you be as a parent if you are having your cup filled as well, and getting your faith questions answered by your church? It would be great to receive the tools you need to nourish your children's faith life right? Then when they ask you the hard questions about what we confess as they're learning in confirmation, you'll be able to have a meaningful, faith-driven conversation with them. That being said, what do you need in your life as a parent to help you be a teacher of faith in your house? Are those transitions in life a struggle? I've been through a few myself, and it was hard! Especially the latest with my oldest becoming a full-fledged middle-schooler, cell-phone, voice change and all. Or, is it questions about what we profess as confessional Lutherans? Maybe you're rusty on what you learned in Catechism. Maybe it's simply starting a devotional or prayer life as a family. Let me know, I look forward to hearing from you.

That being said, our initial plan is a general Adult Bible study. Which, trust me, as someone who sits in on Thursday Bible study, you will enjoy the mix of ages more than you would think. Each generation has different experiences, but we are all united in Christ when we go to the Word together. No question in Bible Study is ever wrong, discussion is always welcome! Our Zion members have proven to be loving and respectful, and I think that's amazing! I would like to hear from you in the meantime about what you would like, so that in the future, I can be helping our pastors work toward equipping all generations for life in Christ.

*To God be the Glory,
Hillary Krahn*

Greetings in Our Lord and Savior,

March 5th is Ash Wednesday and, we enter a solemn and reflective season of Lent. Lent is a time of the year in which we reflect upon our Lord Jesus Christ's and his suffering on the cross so we can have eternal life in Heaven. It is my hope that we all can take time from our busy schedules to deepen our relationship with God, we can use the Lenten season to develop a greater appreciation of the life God is calling each of us to lead.

Also, in March We are celebrating Special People day on the 14th. We are kicking off the day with chapel at 8:30, followed by academics in the classroom and then finishing the day with a school wide history fair in the gym. This is a great day at Zion and enjoyable to see so many familiar faces.

Thank you for your constant support and prayers for our school. I encourage you to continue to support our mission of Equipping generations for life in Christ. Our goal is to provide a transformative education steeped in His Word. There is no greater investment for forming the next generation of Christian Leaders.

*In His Service,

LUTHERANS FOR LIFE

Life Newsbytes

Alex Schadenberg: On December 11, 2024, Canada’s Ministry of Health released the Fifth Annual Report on Medical Assistance in Dying, which found that there were 15,343 reported euthanasia deaths, representing 4.7% of all deaths in 2023. The number of Canadian euthanasia deaths was up from 13,241 in 2022 and 10,092 in 2021. Based on the 2024 MAiD data from Ontario and Alberta, I predict that there were approximately 16,600 Canadian euthanasia deaths in 2024. How did I make my prediction? The Office of the Chief Coroner of Ontario released the December 2024 MAiD data, which indicated that there were 4,957 reported euthanasia deaths in 2024, which is up from 4,641 in 2023 and 3,934 in 2022. Ontario represents almost 40% of Canada’s population. The data indicates that, as of December 31, 2024, there have been 23,333 Ontario euthanasia deaths since legalization. The city of Alliston had a population of 23,253 in 2021. Alberta Health Services released their MAiD data, indicating that there were 1,116 reported euthanasia deaths in 2024, which is up from 977 in 2023 and 836 in 2022 ... [We] will be trying to obtain the provincial euthanasia data to provide insight into Canada’s experience with killing. Speaking up For Life

“[W]e were made for light and life. God’s Word and Sacraments cast darkness aside in our lives; they draw us closer to Him and make us strong unto salvation ... Cling to the promises of Christ. May we recognize that we are blessed For Life even when we are surrounded by darkness, and may we in our darkest seasons, through the work of the Holy Spirit, lean toward the Son for light and for hope.” Michelle Bauman, Director of Y4Life

“With gentleness and respect, we witness to our faith in Jesus so that others will come to believe in Him and eagerly await His return. All who confess Jesus as Lord look forward to His Second Coming with a joy far greater than idle mirth. We are encouraged as we remind each other that our Savior is coming back, and we pray that He would ‘hear and grant our fervent plea.’ Come, Lord Jesus!” Dr. Carol Geisler

“God loves everybody. God loves people that are big and small. God loves people that are every age. God loves people no matter where we live. All people are special to God. The Bible says, ‘For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand’ (Ephesians 2:10). God has good things for each of us.” Timothy, a sixth grader from southern Minnesota, who has Down syndrome
