

Terms and Conditions: Limitations of Therapy (a.) Therapy has its limitations, and results may vary from individual to individual. Shepherd's Therapy does not guarantee any specific outcomes or results from therapy services. (b.) The therapeutic process may involve discussing sensitive and emotionally challenging topics. While our therapists will provide support and guidance, you understand that therapy may not resolve all issues or eliminate all distress. Payment and Cancellation Policy: (a.) Details regarding therapy session fees, payment methods, and cancellation policy are available on our website. By scheduling and attending therapy sessions, you agree to the payment and cancellation terms. b. Failure to attend scheduled therapy sessions or late cancellations may result in charges. Termination of Services: Shepherd's Therapy reserves the right to terminate therapy services at any time for any reason, including but not limited to inappropriate conduct, non-compliance with therapy recommendations, or a lack of progress in therapy.
