

Danielle Milano

318-210-5930

danimacmil@gmail.com

Pineville, LA

COPYWRITER: Emerging copywriter skilled in crafting compelling content tailored to inform, engage, and covert diverse audiences. Currently seeking opportunities in media communications or digital marketing.

Skills and Applications:

Adobe Creative Cloud (including Photoshop, Illustrator, Audition, Premiere Pro and Premiere Rush), Final Draft, Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, Powerpoint), Narrative writing, Graphic design, problem-solving, active listening, creative content, strong attention to detail, editing, proofreading, media communications, critical thinking/analysis, revision, responsive/adaptable, approximately 65 wpm.

Education:

Full Sail University, Media Communications, Creative Writing concentration, BFA, Graduating 2026

Experience:

Newsletter - Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Inc - Editor - August 2024 - Present - Designed, created and currently manage the editing and publication of a monthly newsletter, enhancing member engagement and ensuring high-quality content aligned with organizational goals.

Author - wrote and self-published a nonfiction book in April 2011 and a fiction book in August 2019.

Introduction to Media Communications and Technologies - 4 credits - November 2024 Examined a variety of analytical and strategic perspectives. Identified the many roles of media professionals, created media-campaigns and learned the impact of new media technologies.

Child Welfare Specialist - May 2014 - Present

Written and digital communications.

Assisted in completing on call schedules for 10 people, including supervisors and workers.

Drafted and revised court documents and reports with precision, demonstrating advanced editing and attention to detail under high-stakes conditions.

Utilized active listening and critical thinking skills in assessing families and assessing the safety of children.

