

Module 3: Getting a Job • Lesson 7: Life Skills

WHO SHOULD GET THE JOB?

1. Read the job ad and the information about the people below.

Job Title: Server

Julio’s Pizza is looking for a full-time server to work the evening shift, Tuesday to Saturday.

Duties:

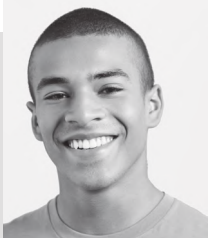

- Take orders
- Serve food
- Clean tables

Requirements:

- 1 or more years’ experience
- Excellent communication skills
- References

Salary $12 an hour + tips

1 Roberto

Roberto has just finished high school. He would like to find a job at a restaurant. He wants to have a career in food services. He thinks a restaurant job will give him good experience. He is friendly and polite. He worked part-time at a restaurant during the summers in high school.

2 Katya

Katya is working part-time as a server in a busy restaurant. She started her job two months ago. She wants to work full-time, so she is looking for a new job. Her customers like her. They usually give her good tips. Her manager thinks she’s doing a good job.

3 Fatima

Fatima worked as a server for ten years. Her customers liked her and gave her good tips. She stopped working when she had children. Now, they are older and she wants to work as a server again. She still has the letter of recommendation her manager wrote her.

2. DETERMINE Which of the 3 people in Exercise 1 should get the job? Explain.

3. COMMUNICATE In groups of four, take turns sharing your answers. Decide as a group who you think should get the job. Then share your answer with the class.