

INTERNATIONAL YOUTH AMBASSADOR PROGRAM

Supported by India's first Global South Centre

International Youth Ambassador Program (IYAP)

We are inviting youth with interest in international relations, commerce and sustainability, who are currently pursuing undergraduate courses to join our International Youth Ambassador Program (IYAP).

- As an ambassador, you will support national events, webinars, chamber's receptions for international delegations and other exciting activities. You will also have the opportunity to create videos, testimonials and social media content showcasing your experiences and contributions.
- Contribute to Chamber's ongoing projects such as:
 - Sector specific working groups like the Road Safety Working Group headed by the United Nations Secretary General's Special Envoy for Road Safety Mr. Jean Todt.
 - Sustainability projects with country's top-rated agencies in the development sector.
- The program offers a fantastic chance to enhance your employability, knowledge and gain valuable experience.
- We ask that ambassadors commit to the program for a minimum of 12 months, with the possibility of extending the role beyond graduation in some cases.

Benefits: Joining IYAP entails several valuable benefits such as:

- A Certificate of Completion to acknowledge your participation.
- Personalized references and endorsements for skills like public speaking, leadership, and teamwork.
- The chance to network and collaborate with international delegates and students.
- Attend and contribute to national events, chamber's receptions and other exciting activities.
- Contribute to world renowned projects and professionals.
- An opportunity to secure a paid internship with the Chamber after successfully completing the program and assessment.

Eligibility: To be eligible for the IYAP, you need to be:

- A believer of the concept - "World is One Family".
- Currently studying in an undergraduate course at a recognised university/institute of your country.

We're seeking Youth Ambassadors with:

- Volunteering spirit and entrepreneurial approach.
- A Strong sense of civic duty, a passion for community development and an understanding of global and current issues.
- Youth from diverse ethnic, religious and national backgrounds.
- A desire to share personal story and help others.

About Chamber India

Chamber of Commerce, Sustainable Development, and Foreign Relations is India's most active chamber with 22 international and 24 domestic chapters, inaugurated by Mr. Amitabh Kant, then CEO of NITI Aayog. It enhances investor-government dialogue, facilitates ease of doing business through high-level summits and delegations, and strengthens engagement with policymakers and industry leaders.

Highlights in 2024

71 meetings with diplomats	21 meetings with indian policymakers	18 meetings with foreign policymakers	112 trade meetings with the industry
---	---	--	---

About the Global South Centre : Inaugurated in June 2023 at Vanijya Bhawan by 4 Union Ministers in presence of diplomats from 54 countries, the Centre strengthens India's ties with the Global South nations by promoting economic, social, and cultural cooperation. It seeks to advance the region's development prospects and global presence through its dedicated working groups. Under Working Group 5, the Chamber focuses on engaging the youth of the Global South in cultural exchange and diplomacy.

To further this mission, Chamber India is launching the International Youth Ambassador Program, offering students a platform to represent Chamber India in their institutions and engage in discussions with the global audience.

Scan here to apply.

