Ande was brilliantly diligent on our adaptation of Lord of the Flies. He was meticulous about radio miking the boys and supplied us with a multitude of rainforest wild tracks and various bird calls which he recorded at dawn in the locations. Nothing is too much for him and he is the calmest mensch you could wish for on a film crew. I wouldn't hesitate to work with him again. - Marc Munden, 2025 (Director, BBC - Lord of the Flies)
