

Donovan Legato Monroe Masonic Lodge No. 4

was established as a Past Masters Lodge working under the auspices of the M.W. King Solomon Grand Lodge of Texas A.F. & A.M. This Past Masters Lodge was named after a true brother Donovan Levell Monroe who was born August 4, 1990, in Houston, Texas and passed away at the age of 22 years old on March 18, 2013. Bro. Monroe was a brother in Hourglass Lodge No. 1, where his cable tow was Bro Bryan Johnson. Donovan was someone who fought his own battles throughout his life and defeated all odds. Permission was gathered from Bro. Monroe's brother, Past Master Joe Manning, and the request of the M.W. Grand Master Bryan K. Johnson. The first WM of this Past Master Lodge was PM Bryan Johnson. Senior Warden PM Edmond Gardner and Junior Warden PM Namon Thomas. Each is instrumental in fostering harmony, discipline, and advancing the craft. Recording keeping is essential to the growth of any lodge and was entrusted to PM Percy Jones. The lodge's financial stewardship was entrusted to Treasurer Desmond Sellers, ensuring accountability and stability from its inception.

Donovan Legato Monroe Masonic Past Masters Lodge No. 4 stands committed to the principles of Freemasonry, developing men of character, strengthening fraternal bonds, and serving the greater good of the community. As a Past Masters lodge, each Past Master looks forward with purpose and pride, striving to be a lasting pillar of light, brotherhood, teaching, and service. Donovan was granted a posthumous Past Master's Degree on September 13, 2025.
