I am Laker Noreen Megolonyo, a law student with a fervent commitment to championing the rights of the girl child. My passion extends to being an adept debater, an accomplished public speaker, and a dedicated advocate for civic engagement, youth inclusivity, and gender equality.

My volunteer work with diverse organizations has endowed me with profound insights into the myriad challenges faced by marginalized communities. I am resolutely dedicated to effecting positive change both within and beyond my community. Through my academic pursuits and volunteer endeavors, I aspire to contribute significantly to the creation of a more inclusive and equitable society.
