Today after breakfast, you can spend your day doing shopping and exploring Bangkok's vibrant Markets. Platinum Fashion Mall is located in Pratunam and you can start shopping on day one. Platinum Fashion Mall is the wholesale shopping haven for many shoppers, traders and tourists. Central World Bangkok is one of the malls we often visit. It is a huge mall and you can find many good deals. If you look for International brands, Central World Bangkok is one of the places you should visit. MBK Center or also known as Mahboonkrong is one of the top shopping malls in Bangkok. It is one of those shopping malls that you can find almost everything under roof. Hence, the locals as well as tourists love MBK Center. After Platinum Fashion Mall closes at 7pm, just walk out to their brand new initiative, the Platinum Mall Night Market. The location of the night market is right in front of the building and there are 40 shops selling different items such as fashion, accessories and food. Probably the smallest night market ever in Bangkok, you can take a look or peep what they selling before head on to your hotel or to the next night market, Palladium night market near by. Unlike other night markets, the Palladium Night Market stalls offer many DIY products. You can personalised your own bags or clothes with unique letterings and cute icons.
