POLICIES AND COUNSELING AGREEMENT

Thank you for selecting Community Counseling Center. Please carefully read the information provided below. Before you begin therapy, it is important that you fully understand your rights and responsibilities as a client of the Community Counseling Center.

YOUR RIGHTS AS A CLIENT

You have the right to ask questions about therapeutic procedures or methods used during your therapy.

You have the right to end therapy at any time without any legal or financial obligations other than the those already incurred.

You have the right to select a different therapist. If you wish to continue therapy with a different therapist, you will be provided with the names of other qualified professionals whose services you may prefer.

One of your most important rights involves confidentiality. All therapeutic communications, records and contacts with professional and support staff will be held in strict confidence. Information may be released, in accordance with state law, only when:

- (1) the client signs a written release of information indicating informed consent
- (2) the client expresses serious intent to harm himself/herself or someone else
- (3) there is evidence or reasonable suspicion of abuse against a minor child, elder person (65 years or older), or dependent adult
- (4) a subpoena or other court order is received directing the disclosure of information

THE THERAPEUTIC PROCESS

A major benefit of therapy is resolving the concerns that brought you to therapy. Another benefit is the ability to better handle or manage marital, family and other interpersonal relationships. Many times, you will have a better understanding of personal goals and values which may lead to greater maturity and happiness as an individual.

In working to achieve these potential benefits, your therapy may involve a firm effort on your part to change. These changes may cause significant discomfort. Remembering and therapeutically resolving unpleasant events can arouse intense feelings such as fear, anger, depression and frustration. Seeking to resolve issues between family members, marital partners, and other persons can similarly lead to discomfort, as well as relationship changes that may not have originally been intended.

WORK AGREEMENT

It is agreed that the client shall make a good-faith effort at personal growth and engage in the counseling process as an important priority at this time in his or her life. Client gain is most important in professional counseling. Suspension, termination, or referral shall be discussed between the counselor and client for a pattern of behavior that reveals disinterest or lack of commitment to counseling or for any unresolved conflict between counselor and client.

FEE AND SERVICE AGREEMENT

All fees are due at the time that services are provided. Professional fees are as follows:

Initial (Diagnostic) Session.....	$210.00
Subsequent 60 Minute Sessions.....	$165.00

A CASH DISCOUNT WILL BE OFFERED TO ALL CLIENTS PAYING BY CASH OR CHECK. THE Initial (Diagnostic) Session WILL BE REDUCED to $165.00 and the 60-minute Session WILL BE REDUCED TO $110.00. If for some reason a client is not able to pay the day the service is rendered, the cash discount will still apply if the session fee is paid within seven (7) days of the session date.

Please also be aware that professional fees will be prorated for sessions that exceed 50 minutes. Please let your therapist know if additional charges resulting from longer sessions will be a problem. If you are using insurance, sessions that exceed 50 minutes are not covered under most plans.

There will be a fee for telephone consultation or sessions (of 15 minutes or more) based on the above-mentioned rates. You will be mailed a statement at the end of the business day that the telephone session occurred.

We take limited insurance at this time. If we are not in-network with your Insurance Provider, we will give you the information you need to file the insurance yourself.

If insurance(s) will be filed:
