

4 Days Orangutan Journey 2025

The Finest Natural Wonders of Borneo

Day 1 (L, D)

Kumai - Tanjung Puting National Park

Upon your arrival in Pangkalan Bun, our tour guide from the Orangutan Journey team will greet you and escort you to Kumai, a charming harbor town. There, you will board your private boat, known as a Klotok. This traditional wooden riverboat, measuring approximately 18 meters by 3.5 meters, features an upper deck offering panoramic views of the rainforest and the picturesque national park as you glide along. Your journey team will include a boat captain, deckhands, and a chef. Cruise for about two hours from Kumai up the Sekonyer River to Tanjung Puting National Park.

River Cruise

Upon reaching the first camp, Tanjung Harapan, embark on a 1-kilometer trek through the rainforest to witness the supplementary feeding of the orangutans at 3 PM. Enjoy the feeding session, take photos, and listen as your guide shares the history of the camp and the stories of its resident orangutans.

Return to the boat and immerse yourself in the wildlife along the riverbanks. Observe various primate species and marvel at the endemic Proboscis monkeys, which are found only in the remote regions of Borneo. This will mark the conclusion of your first day's journey.

Spend your evening at leisure, savor dinner onboard, and relax, preparing for the adventures that await tomorrow.

Day 2 (B, L, D)

Camp Pondok Tanggui – Camp Leakey

After a delightful breakfast onboard, set out on a scenic cruise up the Sekonyer River for approximately an hour to reach Camp Pondok Tanggui (Camp 2). Immerse yourself in the crisp morning air, the captivating forest panorama, and the symphony of colorful birds as your day begins.

Upon arriving at Camp Pondok Tanggui, enjoy a gentle trek to the feeding platform, where you will witness the orangutans receiving their daily supplemental feeding at 9 AM.

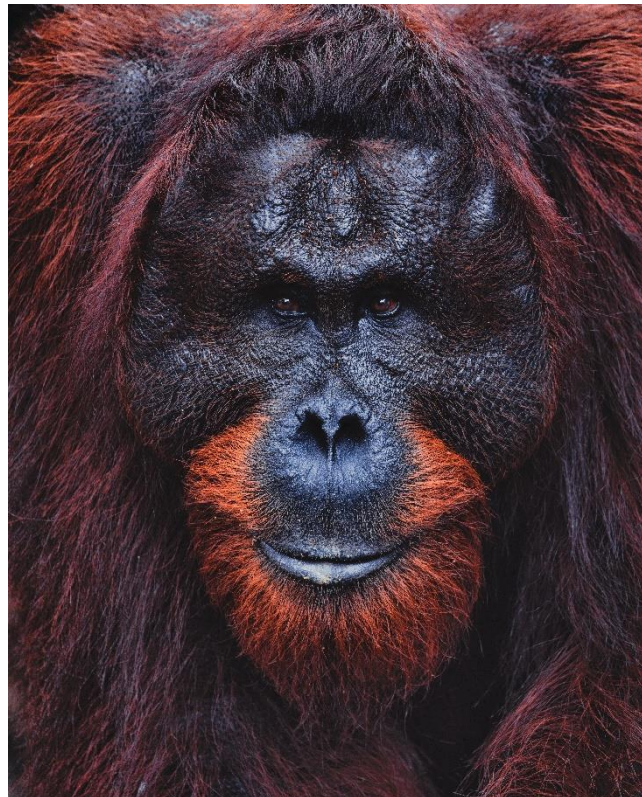

Following this, your knowledgeable guide will lead you on an exploratory trek through the enchanting forest surrounding Camp Pondok Tanggui.

“Board the boat for a 1.5-hour journey upstream to the esteemed Camp Leakey, the largest orangutan research center established in 1971.”

Relish a delicious lunch served on the boat en route to Camp Leakey.

Upon arrival at Camp Leakey’s dock, you may be greeted by some of the semi-wild orangutans that inhabit the area. Camp

Leakey is home to a significant population of orangutans, living as permanent residents.

Your guide will provide fascinating insights into the history of the orangutans you encounter, offering a glimpse into their social interactions. Keep your camera poised to capture these memorable moments.

Take a trek of approximately 1.5 kilometers to the feeding platform at Camp Leakey, where the orangutans' feeding session commences at 2 PM. Along the way, your guide will introduce you to the Borneo tropical rainforest, one of the oldest rainforests in the world.

Experience the orangutans in their natural habitat and marvel at the diverse flora and fauna of this unique ecosystem.

After the feeding activity, return to the boat and drift gently down the river. Enjoy a captivating river safari, observing various primates, wildlife, birds, and the distinctive Proboscis monkeys. Conclude your second day with free time in the evening, savoring dinner onboard and unwinding with a restful overnight on board or at Rimba Lodge.

Day 3 (B, L, D)

River Canoeing – Trekking & Orangutan Feeding at Tanjung Harapan

After a delightful breakfast, your day begins with an invigorating river canoe trip to Sungai Buluh, a captivating stretch of the Sekonyer River. Glide through this narrower section of the river for approximately an hour, where the serene beauty of the rainforest unfolds around you. Immerse yourself in the tranquil surroundings and savor the morning panorama, as the lush nature reveals its stunning charm.

Canoeing at Sungai Buluh

Following your serene river canoeing, embark on a moderate trekking adventure that spans approximately 2 to 3 hours, taking you from Sungai Buluh to the Tanjung Harapan area. This 5 – 6 kilometer trek offers a remarkable introduction to the rainforest's rich diversity. As you navigate the trail, you may encounter wild orangutans and other fascinating wildlife amidst the lush greenery. This immersive journey through the heart of the rainforest promises both discovery and awe.

After your forest trek, enjoy a delicious lunch onboard featuring a selection of local dishes and refreshing beverages. Relax and unwind as you savor your meal and take in the serene river views. Following lunch, you will have the opportunity to contribute to a meaningful reforestation project at Camp Tanjung Harapan. This initiative is a collaborative effort between the Tanjung Puting National Park authorities and Orangutan Journey. Your tour guide will introduce you to various species of endemic trees crucial for the reforestation of Borneo's rainforest. You can choose the trees you wish to plant, supporting the restoration of this vital ecosystem.

In the afternoon, witness another orangutan feeding session at Camp Tanjung Harapan, focusing on capturing detailed documentation and observing these remarkable creatures.

As the day winds down, embark on a river safari to enjoy the sunset and observe monkeys along the riverbanks. In the evening, you may also spot enchanting fireflies near the nypa palms lining the Sekonyer River. Conclude your day with a delectable dinner onboard and relish the tranquil night as you drift gently on the river.
