Professional Experiences

Five Hives and Vines

A start-up meadery in Statesboro, Georgia.

Produced concepts and prototypes for labels and packaging.

Jewel Tree London

A jewelry company based in London, England.

Worked in a team setting to refine their logo, created collateral (ring sizer, look book) and created new packaging designs for jewelry. Produced concepts for jewelry box and constructed box prototypes.

Science To-Go Travel Exhibit

A collaborative project at Georgia Southern.

This exhibit was a collaboration between the Betty Foy Sanders Department of Art and the College of Education to promote STEM disciplines and provide an opportunity to students, parents, and community members all over Southeast Georgia. Collaboration from concept to trailer: consulted with clients, presented concepts, produced a prototype, and actualization.
