

“A Day in the Life of...”

Brian Ballton

b.adayinthelifeof@gmail.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

“A DAY IN THE LIFE OF...” CREATIVE DIRECTOR DEPARTS FOR BROADCAST JOURNALISM ROLE

Founder says Boggess embodies the mission of “A Day in the Life of...”

CHEHALIS, WASHINGTON — “A Day in the Life of...” is proud to announce that its Creative Director, Andrew Boggess, has accepted a position as a Photojournalist/Editor at KREM 2 in Spokane, Washington. He will step away from his leadership position at “A Day in the Life of...” before beginning his new position at KREM 2 on June 1. Andrew will remain on the team as a content creator, where he will support the program when he is able.

“Since I first met Andrew, he has been a perfect example of the mission of ‘A Day in the Life of...,’” said founder Brian Ballton. Andrew joined “A Day in the Life of...” as a content creator in 2022 after being recommended to the organization while attending Centralia College. From there, Andrew helped establish “A Day in the Life of...” as a program and created its digital library of career interviews. Andrew took on a leadership position as the Creative Director in 2024 and his talent, experience, and vision have played a significant role in shaping the organization.

Andrew is a graduate of Southern Adventist University in Collegedale, Tennessee, where he completed a bachelor’s degree in communications with an emphasis in photography and a minor in film production in 2025. He received a regional Silver Award from the American Advertising Federation for cinematography on his short film Tremolo, featuring Gary Fry and Cody Fry. He also received multiple awards from the Society of Adventist Communicators for photography in 2023 and 2024. In 2025, he served on SAU’s student government as the Memories Yearbook Editor and led a team of 12 people to create and distribute yearbooks to the student body. Andrew also operated the camera and pulled focus for Southern Adventist University’s upcoming feature film.

“A Day in the Life of...” was founded by Brian Ballton in 2022 and is based in Chehalis, Washington. The organization helps empower youth by providing insights into a variety of career paths and life skills. Its online catalog shares interviews with career professionals, offering guidance on what an average day in their field is like and the skills needed to achieve similar results. To make a lasting impact, “A Day in the Life of...” engages with the community it serves, continually learning to show up as an authentic, ethical partner. Its digital library is now shared free of charge with organizations that support today’s youth, including schools, churches, youth incarceration programs, and large organizations with community outreach initiatives.

###