

December 2025

We are coming to the end of another year. In October we celebrated six years as a nonprofit! I am so thankful for all of the people that have donated and volunteered to make what we do possible. Without the community support, this nonprofit would not exist. Thank you all for your faithfulness!

I know this time of year is busy for everyone so I will make this a quick update.

Recently, we provided over 120 jackets and sweatshirts to Orangewood Elementary school children in Phoenix, AZ. This school is a Title One School which means the income level of most families is very low. Many children come to school cold daily. Thanks to Jenna Mott's assistance and her mighty team, (she is a 7th grade teacher at Orangewood), these jackets were passed out to 7th and 8th grade students. A big shout out to her team for partnering with us to make this happen!

Last year we helped a sixth grade teacher make this happen for her classroom and I knew we needed to go bigger this year and help more kids!!

Coming together with the Community to help others!

Update on our partner Rekindling Ministries in Yuma. Marco and Mary started Rekindling Ministries only months ago in their home in Yuma. Twice a month they open their home to families in their community to hear the gospel, worship, have a meal and fellowship. They also go into the community and evangelize. This ministry that started with only their family now has over 60 people meeting every other Saturday night! With their willing hearts to serve the Lord we have financially partnered with them to meet their start up needs with furniture, bibles etc.

Now, I am happy to say their next step is becoming a 501(c)3! These steps take money. New in ministry but with much obedience, the Lord is growing what they are doing quickly.

Julia McKernan Ministries has paid the fees to help establish their nonprofit. We brag in the Lord not in ourselves for these things to happen. God is faithful to provide!!

I became aware that a 97 year old woman and her son are both in desperate need of new mattresses.

I saw a Facebook post in our community reaching out for help. As of tomorrow they will be sleeping on new mattresses. The woman who established the post will be delivering them tomorrow. They will be delivered without our name attached, and a big MERRY CHRISTMAS to them!!

In closing.....

Although the world has harsh news daily, God is still faithful. I choose to focus on the goodness of God and all of His many blessings. My heart is full of gratitude for another year serving people.

None of this could be done without the help and support of our donors. Some donate physical items, some give of their time and some provide the financial support we need to purchase the items that are not donated. All is needed and all is appreciated.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!
