UX Designer with a strong background in Occupational Therapy, offering deep expertise in human-centered design and empathy-driven solutions. Skilled in user research, accessibility, and simplifying complex systems, I bring a diverse toolkit of design methodologies and tools to create meaningful user experiences. Currently applying my skills at Palazzo Reale in Milan, where I've gained unique insights that contribute to both personal and professional growth.

EXPERIENCE AND ACHIEVEMENTS

- Graduated in Occupational Therapy from UNESP in 2010.
- Transitioned to User Experience (UX) and User Interface (UI) Design, driven by a passion for human-centered design.
- Developed strong skills in identifying user needs, improving accessibility, and simplifying product complexity.
- Acquired expertise in Adobe Creative Suite, Figma, and other design tools.
- Completed various certifications in design and UX/UI-related areas.
- Strong background in user research, design thinking, and usability testing.
