

Executor First 30 Days Checklist

Inheriting a House in the Bay of Quinte

For executors and families navigating inherited property in Ontario.

THE FIRST 72 HOURS

- Locate original Will
- Confirm legal appointment as Estate Trustee
- Contact estate lawyer
- Notify home insurance (confirm vacancy clause)
- Secure property (locks, alarm, valuables)
- Maintain heat, electricity, water
- Redirect mail

⚠ Many Ontario insurance policies reduce coverage after 30–60 days of vacancy.

WEEK 1–2 LEGAL & FINANCIAL ORGANIZATION

- Determine if probate is required
- Obtain professional date-of-death valuation
- Create inventory of assets & debts
- Open estate bank account
- Notify financial institutions
- Document who removes personal belongings

💡 Keep a written log. Family tension often begins with missing documentation.

PROPERTY EVALUATION (WEEK 2–3)

- Assess current market value in the Bay of Quinte
- Determine outstanding mortgage or liens
- Review repair needs vs cosmetic improvements
- Obtain professional opinion before renovating
- Confirm tax implications of selling

PROPERTY DECISION ROADMAP

SELL

Immediate liquidation, clean break

RENT

Ongoing management & tax reporting

TRANSFER TO BENEFICIARY

Emotional decision + capital gains implications

WEEK 4 – CREATE A PLAN

- Meet with accountant
- Confirm timeline with beneficiaries
- Decide sell / Rent / Hold Strategy
- Develop written estate property plan
- Schedule consultation if selling

COMMON MISTAKES

Most costly estate errors happen here.

- ✗ Letting home sit uninsured
- ✗ Renovating without market guidance
- ✗ Allowing informal item removal
- ✗ Rushing to list “as is”
- ✗ Ignoring capital gains implications

Every estate is different. If your situation feels complex, time-sensitive, or emotionally overwhelming, you don't have to navigate it alone. I offer private consultations for families in the Bay of Quinte to review the property, discuss options, and create a clear plan forward. Sometimes one focused conversation brings tremendous clarity.
