

NSBE UWindsor Presents:

THE BLACK

Engineering Network

CONFERENCE

May 23-24, 2025
University of Windsor

Engineering
University of Windsor

Our Purpose & Goals

NSBE UWindsor is a student-run chapter of the National Society of Black Engineers, committed to supporting the academic and professional success of Black engineering students at the University of Windsor.

The Black Engineering Network Conference is a two-day professional event dedicated to connecting Black engineering students, alumni, and industry professionals affiliated with the University of Windsor. The purpose of the conference is to foster a thriving network that supports career growth, mentorship, and representation within the engineering field.

By bringing together diverse voices through panel discussions, interactive workshops, company engagement, and a formal gala, the conference aims to:

- Bridge the gap between students and alumni by facilitating mentorship and community building.
- Provide access to recruiters and professional opportunities in support of co-op placements and post-graduate employment.
- Highlight and celebrate Black excellence in engineering while addressing the systemic challenges and opportunities within STEM.
- Equip participants with tools and insights to succeed academically, professionally, and personally.

The Black Engineering Network Conference exists to empower the next generation of Black engineers, elevate their voices, and strengthen the pipeline of Black talent in engineering industries across Canada and beyond.
