

NASERIAN BOMA VICOBA GROUP, MONIC

Engishon business training takes place in Monic, a small village near Lake Natron, in Engaresero Ward, Ngorongoro District. Members of Naserian Boma VICOBA group learn from the Engishon Credit Office about microfinance and how it can improve women's and family's economic stability. Ngaresero Ward. 25 Women attended the training after being identified as the most in need within their community. Similarly, women from Kisangiro Village also received their first introduction to Engishon so that they too can begin on their journey to providing the basic needs for their families while managing their businesses to make profit and grow