As the daughter of a fine art photographer, Samantha grew up surrounded by; cameras, lenses, studios and darkrooms, so it seems her fate was a fait accompli.

To her, photography is about capturing the beauty of a moment that lasts forever, a moment in time that can never be repeated.

She is fortunate to have found her passion at an early age under the guidance and mentorship of her father, fine art photographer and artist Martin Osner.

After studying at his photography school for several years, she started experimenting with art photography and was offered her first exhibition in 2016.

Lights, camera, action and her career as an art photographer had begun.

Samantha's stunning portfolio includes landscapes, portraits and mixed media prints in both limited and open editions; she is an artist who portrays minimalism, femininity, and elegance throughout her work.

*"SIMPLICITY IS THE ULTIMATE SOPHISTICATION."
— LEONARDO DA VINCI*

On a winter's day in 1984, "photography" and I met quite accidentally, an encounter that redirected my life and changed it forever. A journey that has refined a relaxed subconscious attitude with a desire to express simplicity and honesty through my work.

For me, a photograph holds an undeniable sense of realism, a new correlation that is easy to associate with. I see, I understand; I experience, I connect. In my photography, I allow day-to-day life to provide inspiration and I treat all subjects as potential compositions.

I enjoy the conceptual transformation that a lens and camera offer. Although I have never been a dedicated painter, I see and experience the world this way.

I have never doubted my love for photography or my burning passion for art. It is something I could never stop. It's what I do, what I love and who I am.

I believe my steps have been guided along an inventive and purposed path by an awesome and caring God.
