Kankakee County Auditor Moves to 5th Floor

Kankakee, IL – The Kankakee County Auditor's office has officially relocated from the 4th floor to the 5th floor of the Kankakee County Administration Building. This move places the office back in its former space, offering improved accessibility and a more efficient layout for staff and the public.

The relocation, effective March 26, 2025, is designed to streamline operations and provide a more convenient environment for residents seeking assistance. The office's new location on the 5th floor will help create better overall experience for both visitors and employees.

Colton Ekhoff, Kankakee County Auditor, commented on the move:

"This move back to our original location on the 5th floor is a great step forward in improving both our accessibility and the efficiency of our office. By returning to this space, we can better serve the public and continue to focus on delivering high-quality service to the residents of Kankakee County."

The Kankakee County Auditor's office will continue to operate during its regular hours. The office is now located on the 5th floor of the Kankakee County Administration Building at 189 E. Court Street, Kankakee, IL.
