

ENGIMS LTD – CANDIDATE PRIVACY NOTICE

Engims Ltd (the Company) operates as a recruitment business providing work-finding services to work seekers and clients. In many instances, we recruit candidates directly into our own employment with the intention of finding them a secondment within a client organisation. The Company must process personal data (including sensitive personal data) so that it can provide these services and, in doing so, the Company acts as a data controller.

This means that we are responsible for deciding how we hold and use personal information about you. You are being sent a copy of this privacy notice because you are applying for work with us (whether as an employee, worker or contractor) or for the opportunity for work to be found with one of our clients. It makes you aware of how and why your personal data will be used, namely for the purposes of the recruitment exercise and/or the job search, and how long it will usually be retained for. It provides you with certain information that must be provided under the General Data Protection Regulation ((EU) 2016/679) (GDPR).

The Company must have a legal basis for processing your personal data. For the purposes of providing you with work-finding services and/or information relating to roles relevant to you, we will only use your personal data in accordance with the terms of the following statement.

HOW WE WILL USE INFORMATION ABOUT YOU
