Spices 4 thought.

Cinnamon

It is principally employed in cookery as a condiment and flavouring material. It is used in the preparation of chocolate, which is the main importer of true cinnamon. inpickling.

Pepper

Pepper was believed to cure illness such as constipation,diarrhea, earache, gangrene, heart disease, indigestion, insect bites,insomnia, joint pain, liver problems, lung disease, oral abscesses, sunburn, tooth decay, and toothaches.

Cumin

Cumin can be an ingredient in chili powder (often Texan or Mexican-style), and is found in achiote blends,garam masala, curry powder, and bahaarat. Cumin can be used ground or as whole seeds. It helps to add an earthy and warming feeling.

Cardamom

Cardamom is strong, and has an intensely aromatic, resinous fragrance. Black one has a distinctly more smokey, though not bitter, aroma, with a coolness and similar to mint.Green cardamom is one of the most expensive spices by weight.
