

7-Day Fall Foliage Itinerary - Boston & New England

Day 1: Boston City Magic

- Boston Common & Public Garden: Enjoy autumn colors in America's oldest park.
- Walk the Freedom Trail with vibrant foliage through historic streets.
- Sunset at the Charles River Esplanade with golden reflections on the water.
- Dinner in the North End, Boston's Italian quarter.

Day 2: Concord & Lexington

- Drive 30 minutes to Walden Pond for peaceful fall scenery.
- Minute Man National Historical Park: Explore history surrounded by red and orange leaves.
- Lunch in Concord, then apple picking and cider tasting at local orchards.
- Return to Boston or overnight in Concord.

Day 3: New Hampshire - White Mountains

- Drive 2 hours to Kancamagus Highway (Route 112), a world-famous scenic drive.
- Stops at Sabbaday Falls and Rocky Gorge for photos and short hikes.
- Afternoon at Franconia Notch State Park: Flume Gorge and Cannon Mountain Tramway.
- Overnight in North Conway.

Day 4: Vermont - Green Mountains

- Drive 2.5 hours to Stowe, Vermont.
- Scenic ride through Smugglers' Notch Pass.
- Visit Ben & Jerry's Factory in Waterbury.
- Stroll through Stowe Village with boutiques, cafes, and trails.

- Overnight in Stowe or Burlington.

Day 5: Lake Champlain & Burlington

- Drive along Lake Champlain with mountain views and fall reflections.
- Explore Church Street Marketplace in Burlington.
- Optional boat ride on Lake Champlain.
- Dinner at local breweries and farm-to-table restaurants.
- Overnight in Burlington.

Day 6: Coastal Maine Adventure

- Drive 3 hours to Kennebunkport, a picturesque seaside town.
- Visit Portland Head Light, Maine's iconic lighthouse surrounded by foliage.
- Lunch in Portland with a lobster roll specialty.
- Explore Old Port District's cobblestone streets and shops.
- Overnight in Portland.

Day 7: Cape Ann & Salem

- Drive back toward Boston with a stop in Salem, known for the Witch Trials.
- Explore Rockport and Gloucester (Cape Ann) for coastal beauty and autumn colors.
- Return to Boston for a farewell dinner.

This 7-day itinerary combines city history, countryside orchards, mountain vistas, lakeside beauty, and coastal charm for the ultimate New England fall foliage adventure.