Read the passage below and answer the questions that follow.

In the leafy nooks of a forest, lived a deer. "My flowers have been stolen! Almost every single bunch!" Deer panicked, feeling anxious. He saw a clump of fur on the ground. He thought he just might know where the culprit could be found.
Deer marched to Squirrel's house. "Excuse me, I was really looking forward to eat my bunches of flowers. Would you please return them?" Deer said to Squirrel. But Deer was not the only one that had missing food that day. "My acorns have been stolen too!" Squirrel cried. The villain left a bite mark in the tree as it went by. The two friends knew only one friend who would nibble a tree. So they marched to Beaver's house to look for their precious food. They saw Beaver up ahead on a road.	5 10
"Excuse me!" shouted Squirrel. "Have you seen my acorns?" But Squirrel was not the only one who was crossed about her missing snack. Beaver's branches had been stolen too. "I'm sure I saw a pointy tusk as he fled!" said Beaver, full of grief. The friends knew of only one creature with tusks, so off they marched to catch their sneaking thief. They arrived at some bushes where Boar was foraging for some berries.	15
"Excuse me Boar, did you see my branches?" With teary eyes, Boar said his berries had been taken too. And the robber left some footprints on a rock. The four friends followed the trail of footprints as their guide.	20
Suddenly, they came to the mouth of a cave. A huge silhouette inside began to shuffle in sight. "A monster!" Deer shouted as they all turned to flee. The monster mumbled shyly as he blushed, "Please, won't you join me for some tea?"
The monster showed them inside, hoping to make some friends that day. "Surprise!" Inside the cave was a party table full of amazing food and their missing food!" Now, the monster's plan was clear.	25
