Section H: Comprehension (10 marks)

Read the following passage carefully. Then write the answers for questions 26 to 34.

Sam and Ben positioned their boat carefully at the starting line, eager for the race to start. After training diligently for the past few months, they were determined to win the race. It was their final chance to compete in the junior category.

Bang! The race had started. Sam and Ben paddled as fast as they could. Their boat shot ahead and they were in the lead. The boys felt confident about winning. 5
However, they noticed their competitors, John and Ali, coming up fast beside them. Not wanting to lose, Sam and Ben paddled even harder.

Suddenly, Sam heard a loud splash! He looked back and noticed that John and Ali had dropped their rowing oars into the water. Unable to move their boat, they were frantically calling for help. 10

"We have to help them!" Sam shouted to Ben over the water splashing against their boat. Ben hesitated as they were in the lead, but he knew that winning was not everything. Together, they turned their boat around and headed towards John and Ali.

"Throw us your tow rope!" Sam called out as they neared John and Ali's boat. 15
With relief, John tossed the rope. Sam quickly caught it and passed it to Ben. Ben fastened it securely to their boat. Sam and Ben started paddling once again, this time, pulling John and Ali's boat along.

As the four boys reached the finishing line, they could see the smiles of the other competitors. Sam and Ben felt proud knowing that they had displayed 20 sportsmanship.
