A Call to Love and Serve in Leadership

Guided by Christ's example of sacrifice

A Prayerful Reflection

Jesus, You wore a crown of thorns to show what it means to lead. Teach me to rule not with fists, but with pierced hands. Let my authority be self-giving, my leadership marked by service. Kill in me the tyrant, raise up the protector. May my wife see You in my sacrifice, and may my children learn strength through my restraint.

Amen.
