"Jesus was a master storyteller, but His stories were not just for the people of His day. Jesus' stories (called parables) give us a deeper understanding of His heavenly Kingdom and how we can become part of His Kingdom. In this wonderful devotional for families, Deborah Ellison features more than two dozen parables to help readers apply biblical truth to their everyday lives."

If you want to dig deeper into God's word and learn from the Master Storyteller, the devotions in this book will provide hours of meaningful moments as you and your children discover hidden truths in the parables of Jesus."
