MEDITERRANEAN ESSENCE

Mediterranean
extra virgin olive oils

A close-up photograph of an olive branch with several green olives and silvery-green leaves, set against a clear blue sky. The branch enters from the bottom left and extends towards the center of the frame.

Oil has been with us for centuries. However, its culture, its cultivation techniques, the way it is made, presented and tasted have been constantly evolving, thanks to innovation.

From Lolailo – Mediterraneans Oils, we bet this constant innovation. That's why we carefully select each season the best farms with centuries-old trees that are the best basis to obtain a EV00 of the highest quality.

SELECTION

Powerful, aromatic, sensitive, sublime, an indescribable aove.
Thanks to its early collection, the oil has a higher antioxidant power due to a high content of polyphenols and vitamin E.
A real olive juice from the natural park of the Cordoba subbética.
PICUDA 60% - HOJIBLANCA 40%
Limited production.

BIO

100% Natural olive juice from ecological olivers. Respecting the environment and without adding any phytosanitary product or chemical fertilizer. Due to its intensity, a small drop of this oil makes the difference in its dishes.
PICUAL.
Limited production.

FIRST HARVEST

First harvest day is a limited edition oil collected early from the hojiblanca variety. Keeping all its properties and providing a unique taste. Due to its early collection the amount of oil obtained is very small but its sensory and organoleptic characteristics are unique.
