CURSES? WERE ANY OATHS TAKEN? BY WHO? WHAT WERE THE PROVISIONS? WAS IT A BLOOD OATH?		If a curse is passed down to children, then it must have been previously passed down to the parent as well. Verify that a curse identified here has also been identified and renounced by the parent. If not, once this template has been completed, put a "HOLD" on further steps until it is determined whether the curse still resides in the core. If a newly discovered curse is made known and involved an oath, it should be renounced in prayer by the parent (counselee) A blood oath(one involving the shedding of or exchange of blood) will require a verbal renunciation by the parent.
