Privacy Policy

This privacy policy describes how Intermediary AS collects, uses, and protects your personal information in connection with your use of our website and services.

1. Collection of Information: We collect personal information when you voluntarily provide it to us, for example, when you fill out forms, sign up for our services, or communicate with us via email or other channels. The types of personal information we collect may include name, email address, phone number, address, and other information you choose to provide to us.

2. Use of Information: We use the collected information to provide and manage our services, respond to your inquiries, improve our website and services, and for other purposes in accordance with your wishes and requirements.

3. Protection of Information: We take appropriate measures to protect your personal information from unauthorized access, alteration, disclosure, or destruction. We maintain physical, technical, and administrative security measures to protect your information.

4. Sharing of Information: We do not share your personal information with third parties without your consent, except when necessary to provide our services or comply with applicable laws.

5. Access and Right to Correction: You have the right to request access to the personal information we have about you and to correct any inaccurate information. You can also request that we delete your personal information from our systems.

6. Changes to the Privacy Policy: We reserve the right to change this privacy policy from time to time. Any changes will take effect upon the publication of the revised policy on our website. It is your responsibility to review this policy regularly to stay updated.
