Let CartoonBob Studios do great promotional COMIC STRIPS 4U...

We can help you with the entire process of doing your own custom COMIC STRIP... starting with creating a set of characters and writing the dialogue for/with you.

We offer a variety of illustration styles... from very simplistic to detailed or even poetically moody. We've done COMIC STRIPS of all kinds for all kinds of clients.

I'm Bob D'Amico. I fully GUARANTEE your complete satisfaction with our professionalism, talent, and dependability.

These aren't my real ears.

- ☐ Tell us what you have in mind
- ☐ Let's discuss it... No obligation to you.
- ☐ What styling would you like? We offer a range of styles from stick figures to very detailed work.
- ☐ Let's set a budget and we'll provide an estimate. Once set, we'll stick to it.
- ☐ We'll do rough(s) and keep you in the loop as we tighten up your work. See page 2 for a visual on this process.
- ☐ Once developed via roughs and intermediate level work, we'll do finished artwork for you. We work using the Adobe Creative suite. Finals are usually JPEG, PNG, or PDF files.

You don't need to have a fully developed idea to start the process of having a COMIC STRIP done to promote your product or service.

All you need is a WISH... and some budget to pay for the genie of the lamp to create great comic strip(s) for you. We work a wide range of styles and budgets, starting quite low for simpler approaches.

We can make YOU into a character, or develop characters for you.

It all begins with a conversation... and we'll be more than happy to discuss your wishes up front at no charge.

Just rub the lamp... or even better... talk to us... what is your wish?

I am often called upon to FIX work started by an artificial intelligence robot. Client wanted to simplify the comic strips done, (which I originally said was quite beautiful artwork.) Client said it had way too much going on per panel to be used on screen during a business presentation. Too distracting. Also, the wording was impossible to control. Sometimes that robot just goes wild. At CartoonBob's studio, I'm HUMAN, and you can talk with me!

Very custom cartoon done as a 10th anniversary gift from him to her. Client was very happy, and sent this note:
 Huge success! She cried she was so happy. It's hanging on the wall going up the stairs to the living room so everyone can see it. (photo right). And she's been bragging about it to her friends.

Client sent numerous photos for us to work from. Given our busy workload, this sort of custom comic strip takes about a month to properly develop.

How People Valued Mortgage Pools in the 'Olden Days'

The data file was sent by the seller to the buyer. And so, the valuation torture began...

The seller's data structure never fitted neatly into the Excel valuation model so the poor associate would have to re-size and reformat it.

With the data finally imported, the stratification and valuation analysis began. A lot of patience was required.

Many different versions of the model would propagate and it was hard to keep track of pools and assumptions.

Finally a price was arrived at just before the deadline.

Thankfully, things have evolved a lot since then

Step 1) Now, buyers just log into the Mortgage Analytics and Pricing System (MAPS)

Step 2) They click on the Import button to feed the pool data into the system Step 3) All done... the pool has been versioned, stratified and priced. How did people ever do this before MAPS?

PROGRESSIVE STEPS FOR A COMIC STRIP

Left: First we drop the actual script into panels, and usually have a few back-and-forth transactions with the client to keep wording clear, concise, and not filling too much of the panel. (Room must be left for the art). Blue notes explain the graphic plan.

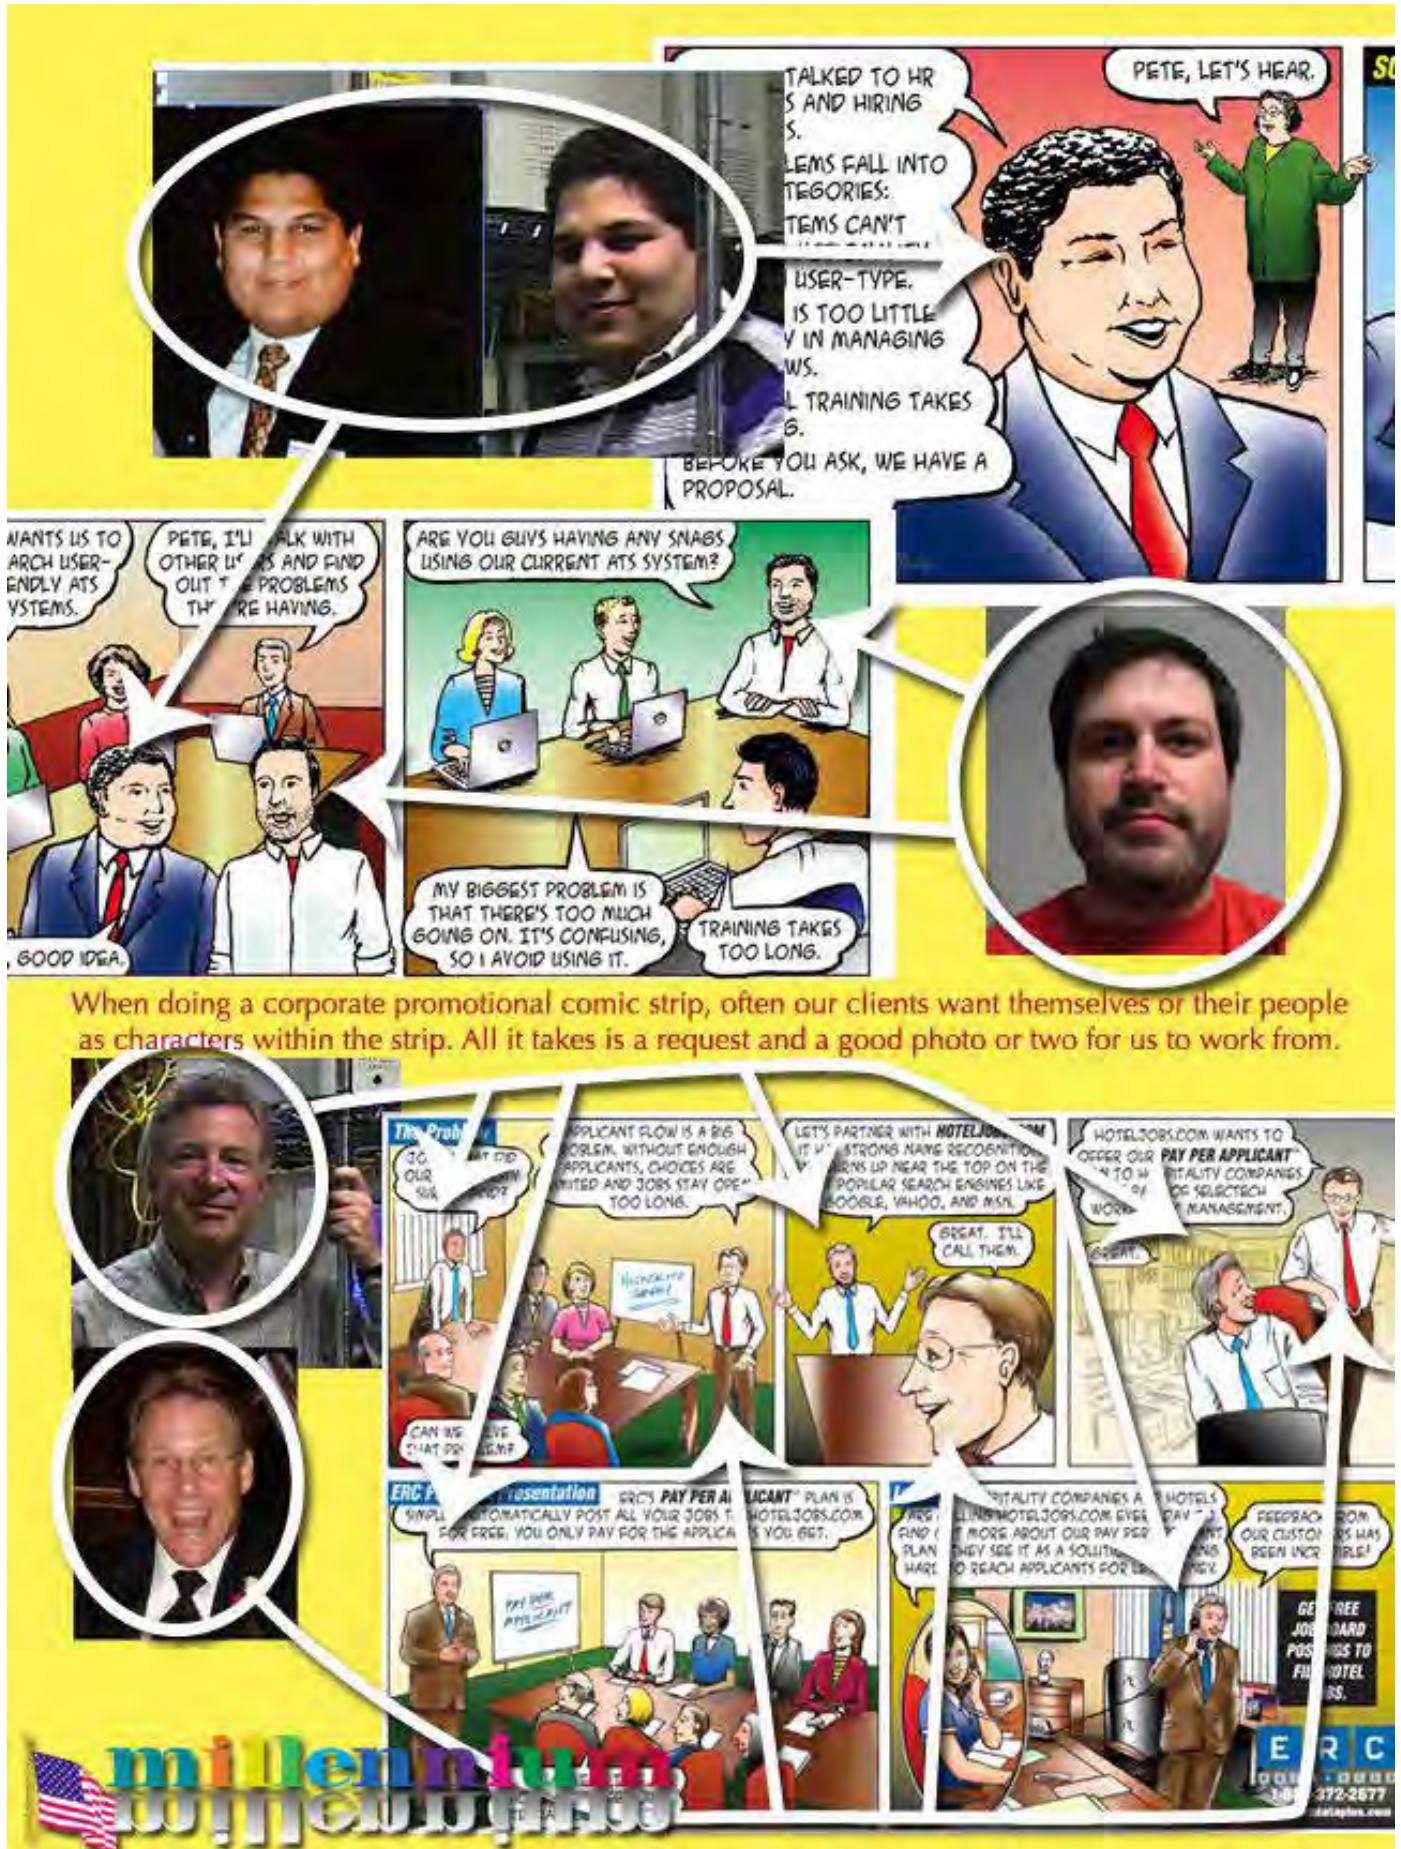

Right: after script is tight, we pencil in roughs of the graphics, and review with client.

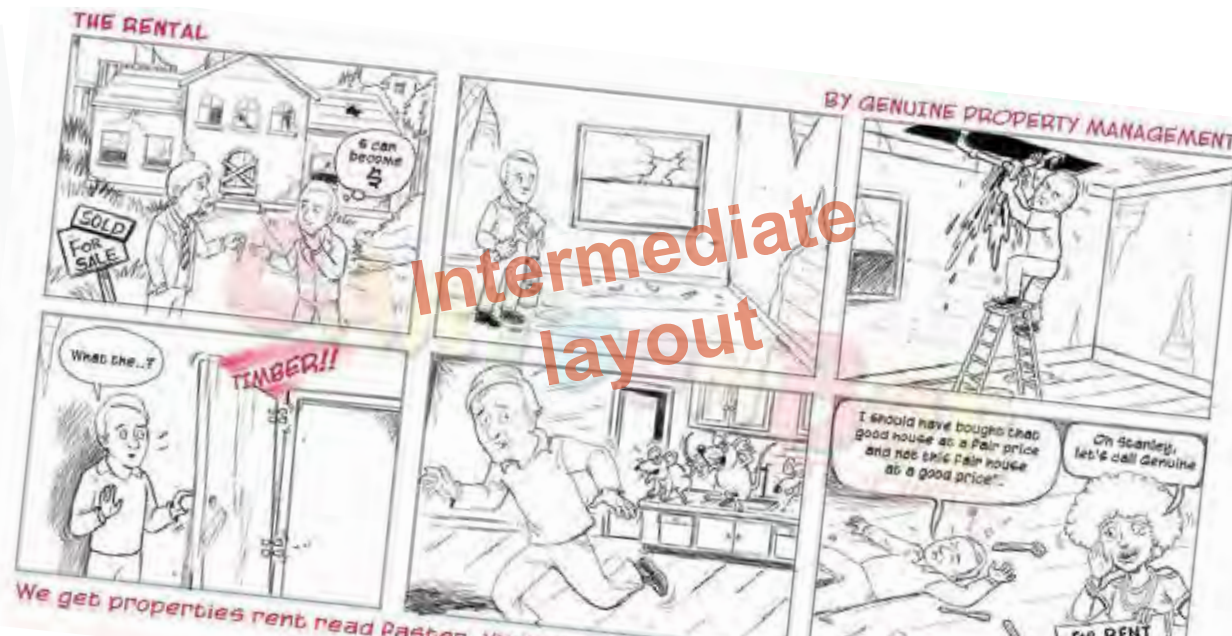

Left: after pencil is adjusted, if needed, we then proceed to a b/w inked version, also for a last review prior to adding in color to a final piece... as shown below.

Washington University Snoring Treatment

The snoring treatment, which includes nasal rinse, nasal strips, mouth tape, and lateral positional therapy, can help to reduce or eliminate snoring in many people. It is important to note that these treatments may not be appropriate or work for everyone, and should be discussed with a healthcare professional before starting. Additionally, lifestyle changes such as weight loss, quitting smoking, and avoiding alcohol before bedtime may also help to reduce snoring.

Jay F. Piccirillo, MD.

Nasal Rinse

Nasal rinse can help improve breathing by clearing the nasal passages and reducing congestion. Irrigation of the nasal passages, helps to moisturize and hydrate the nasal tissues, thin and loosen the mucus, and flush out irritants. For people with allergies, addition of a steroid to the nasal rinse can improve breathing more than just rinse alone.

Breathe Right Strip

Nasal strips are adhesive strips applied to the outside of the nose. The bands gently lift and open the nasal passages. This helps to expand the space inside the nostrils, which allows for improved airflow. By improving nasal airflow, nasal strips can help reduce the need for mouth breathing and decrease the likelihood of snoring.

Mouth Taping

Mouth taping encourages nasal breathing and reduces mouth breathing. Mouth taping involves applying a small piece of tape over the lips to keep the mouth closed throughout the night. Mouth taping can help reduce or eliminate snoring, leading to quieter and more restful sleep.

Lateral Positional Therapy

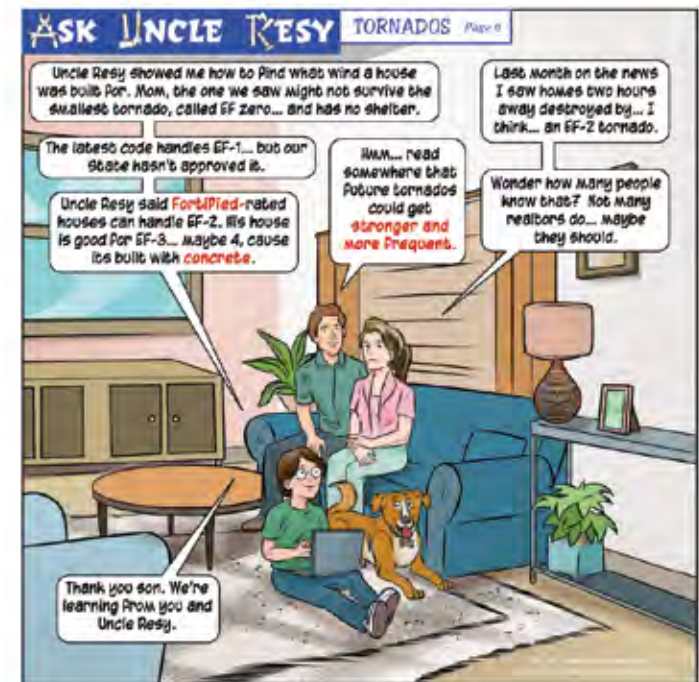

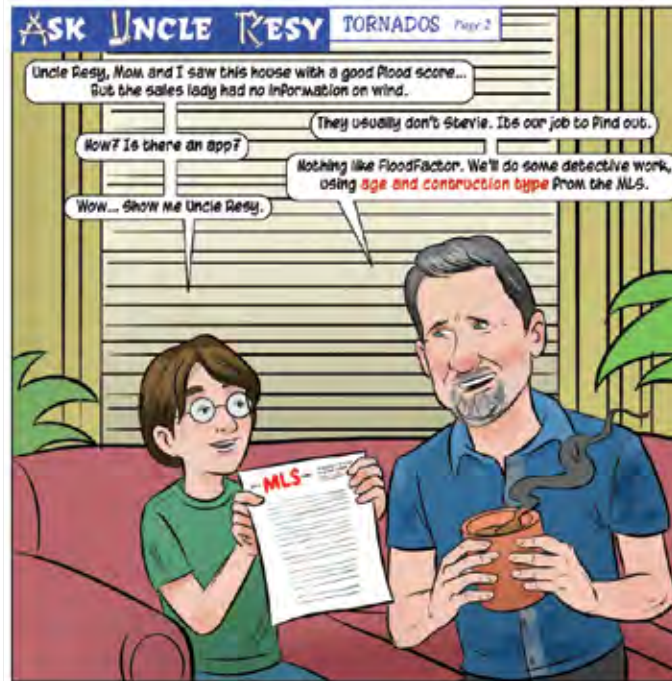

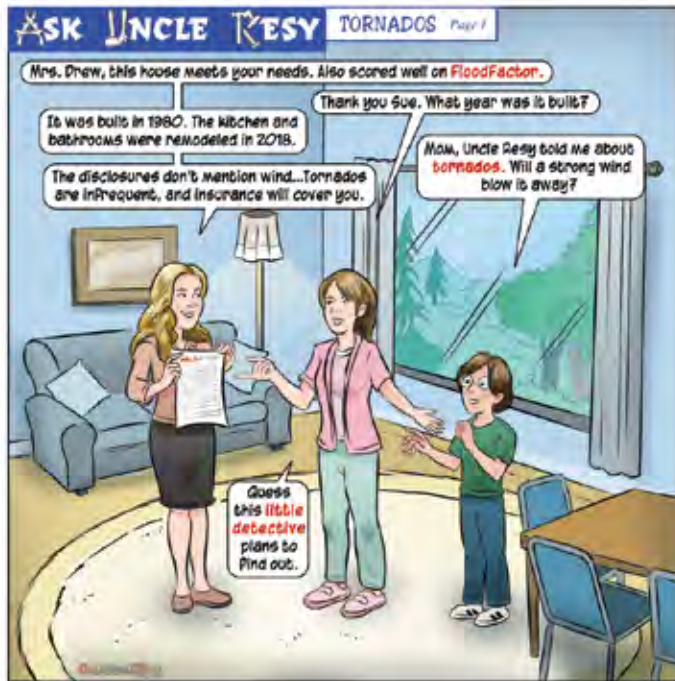

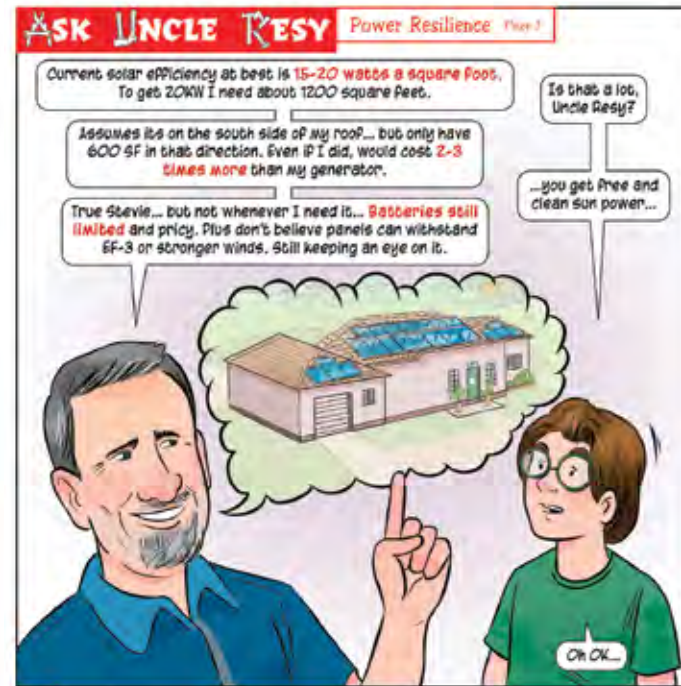

Side sleeping helps keep the airway open and aligned and can help reduce snoring. Back sleeping can result in the tongue falling backward and obstructing the airway, which leads to the vibration of tissues in the throat. To make side sleeping more comfortable and effective, use a supportive pillow that provides adequate support for your neck and head and keeps your spine aligned in a neutral position.

We can't hire an IN-HOUSE GRAPHIC DESIGNER. That's ridiculous!

I'd like some CHARTS and GRAPHS and other WEB CONTENT that doesn't put people to sleep.*

Our CATALOG and YEARBOOK can sure use some creativity.*

It would be nice to get some very custom cartoons to our PROMO AND BRANDING MATERIALS.*

How about our own custom HAPPY BIRTHDAY CARD, with us drawn as a rodeo, basketball or football team?*

Yeah. CARICATURES of all of us for our website.*

We could even explain and clearly show OUR SERVICES in a COMIC STRIP.*

We don't only work with large companies with boardrooms. We also work energetically with smaller and even startup companies.
