

Two jaw chucks are pre dominantly used when machining irregular shaped components and are therefore mainly used with contour jaws.