WELCOME TO KARPATHOS

Wild - Authentic - Unforgettable

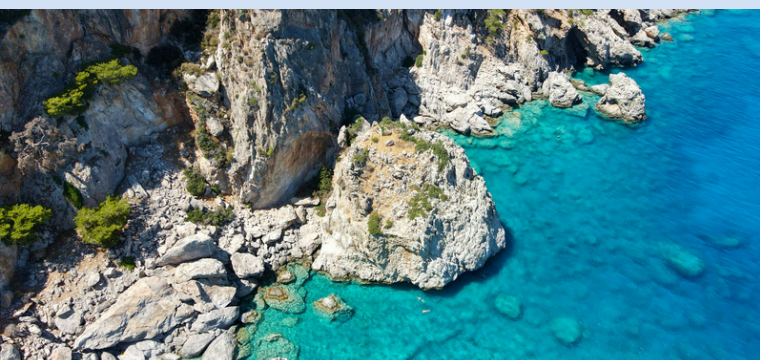

With its dramatic coastlines, crystal-clear waters, and rugged mountains, Karpathos is a dream destination for those who love the outdoors. The island is home to pristine beaches, hidden coves, and breathtaking hiking trails that offer incredible views of the Aegean Sea. Whether you're seeking a quiet spot to unwind or an adventure-filled day exploring nature, Karpathos has something for everyone.

For water sports enthusiasts, the island's strong summer winds create ideal conditions for windsurfing and kitesurfing. Meanwhile, the relaxing bays provide the perfect setting for snorkeling, diving, and swimming in some of the clearest waters in the Mediterranean.

Karpathos is not just about natural beauty, it is also a place where traditions remain deeply rooted in everyday life. The island's villages feel like a journey back in time, with narrow streets, beautiful architecture, and locals who proudly keep their customs alive. Traditional music, handmade crafts, and authentic Greek hospitality create an atmosphere that is warm and welcoming.

Visitors can experience local festivals, where food, dance, and music bring people together in celebration. Family-run tavernas serve homemade dishes passed down through generations, offering a true taste of Karpathanian cuisine. From fresh seafood to traditional handmade pasta, the flavors of the island are as memorable as its landscapes.

Whether you're looking for a romantic getaway, a family vacation, or a solo adventure, Karpathos offers a unique and unforgettable experience. The island's blend of untouched nature, rich culture, and welcoming atmosphere makes it a hidden treasure in Greece.

"Authentic Greek charm, breathtaking scenery, and a laid-back atmosphere. Karpathos is waiting to be discovered."

6 VILLAGES YOU MUST VISIT IN KARPATHOS

Karpathos, a hidden gem in the Dodecanese, is home to some of Greece's most charming and picturesque villages. Whether you're seeking traditional architecture, stunning views, or authentic Greek culture, these six villages are essential stops during your stay on the island.

OLYMPOS – THE LIVING MUSEUM

Perched high in the mountains, Olympos is a village where time seems to stand still. Locals maintain centuries-old traditions, wearing traditional clothing and baking bread in outdoor stone ovens. With its colorful houses, windmills, and breathtaking views of the Aegean, Olympos offers an unforgettable experience for history enthusiasts and photographers alike.

FINIKI – A CHARMING FISHING VILLAGE

Finiki is a small, enchanting fishing village on Karpathos's western coast. Known for its picturesque harbor, colorful boats, and fresh seafood, it's an ideal spot to experience the island's seaside traditions. Enjoy a delicious meal at a waterfront taverna while watching the sun set over the Aegean Sea.

ARKASA – WHERE HISTORY MEETS THE SEA

Located on the western side of the island, Arkasa beautifully blends history, culture, and coastal charm. It's home to ancient ruins, including remnants of the city of Arkesia. Visitors can enjoy traditional Greek cuisine at local tavernas, experience warm hospitality, and enjoy stunning sunsets over the sea.

Nearby beaches like Agios Nikolaos are not only perfect for swimming and relaxation, but they also attract wave surfers looking to ride the Aegean swells.

MENETES – A VILLAGE WITH A VIEW

Just a short drive from Pigadia, the island's capital, Menetes is a hillside village known for its stunning panoramas and rich history. The village is home to the Church of the Assumption, a beautiful landmark offering fantastic sunset views. Stroll through its narrow alleys to find charming tavernas and friendly locals eager to share stories about their homeland.

LEFKOS – A SEASIDE ESCAPE

Lefkos is a coastal village that perfectly combines traditional Greek charm with breathtaking seaside beauty. It boasts two main beaches: one with calm, crystal-clear waters ideal for relaxation, and another with more active waves for adventurous swimmers. Along the shore, you'll find welcoming seaside tavernas serving fresh seafood and homemade Greek dishes. The relaxed atmosphere, stunning views, and sandy shores make Lefkos a peaceful haven for visitors.

APERI – THE NOBLE MOUNTAIN VILLAGE

Just 8 km from Pigadia, Aperi is a former capital of Karpathos, perched 350 meters above sea level with stunning views and a peaceful atmosphere. Known for its elegant houses, flower-filled courtyards, and historic churches. Stroll through its quiet and narrow streets, enjoy a coffee at one of the local cafés, or relax at a family-run taverna serving traditional dishes. With its rich history, welcoming locals, and access to beaches like Achata and Kyra Panagia, Aperi is a perfect blend of culture, community, and natural beauty.

THE TOP 5 BEACHES IN KARPATHOS YOU CAN'T MISS!

Karpathos, a hidden gem of the Aegean, is home to some of the most beautiful beaches in Greece.

Whether you're looking for crystal-clear waters, dramatic cliffs, or soft golden sand, this island has it all. Here are the top five beaches in Karpathos that you simply can't miss!

APELLA BEACH – AEGEAN PERFECTION

Often listed among the most beautiful beaches in Europe, Apella is a postcard-perfect destination that truly lives up to the hype. Surrounded by steep, pine-covered cliffs and dramatic rock formations, it offers a spectacular blend of wild nature and serene waters. The sea here is unbelievably clear, shimmering in brilliant shades of turquoise and deep blue, inviting you to swim, snorkel, or simply float and relax.

The beach itself is mostly pebbled, with some sandy areas closer to the shore, making it comfortable for lounging while also ideal for underwater visibility. Snorkelers will love the rocky seabed, home to small fish and marine life. Despite its popularity, Apella has managed to maintain a peaceful, unspoiled feel, thanks to its relatively remote location.

It's accessible by boat from Pigadia or by a narrow, winding mountain road, both of which offer stunning views along the way. A small taverna nearby serves up simple, delicious food with a view, making it easy to spend several hours here. Whether you're after nature, relaxation, or the perfect Instagram shot, Apella is a must-visit on any Karpathos visit.

KYRA PANAGIA – BEAUTY MEETS TRADITION

Famous for its small red-roofed chapel perched above the bay, Kyra Panagia combines natural beauty with a strong sense of tradition. Surrounded by steep, rocky hills and lush pine trees, the beach itself features soft golden sand and crystal-clear turquoise water that invites both relaxation and exploration. It's a favorite among locals and visitors for its accessibility and stunning setting.

The beach is well-organized, with sunbeds, umbrellas, and several seaside tavernas serving traditional and modern Mediterranean dishes, making it ideal for a full day in the sun.

Families appreciate the calm, shallow waters, while couples and photographers are drawn to its dramatic scenery, especially during golden hour. Whether you're there for a swim, a meal, or just to soak in the view, Kyra Panagia offers a picture-perfect beach experience with an authentic island charm.

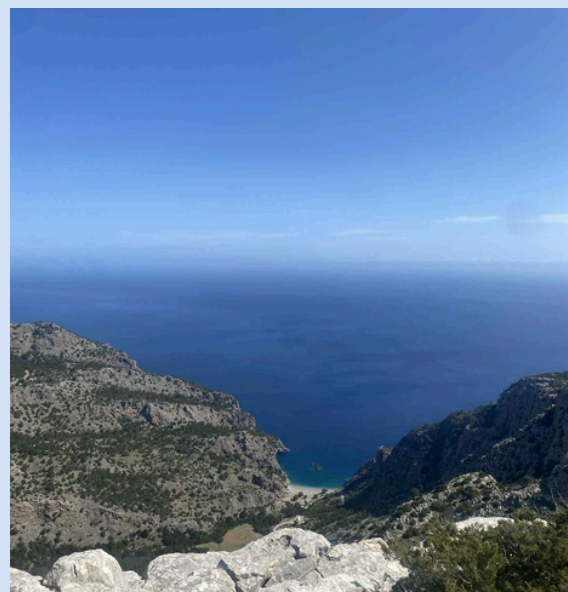

Picture: Karpathos Info

ACHATA BEACH – PEACEFUL AND SCENIC

Placed between rocky cliffs, Achata is a pebble beach with calm, clear waters that are ideal for snorkeling. The bay is small and peaceful, perfect for those looking to relax. A short swim from the beach leads to a small sea cave, adding a bit of adventure to your visit.

The road to Achata is narrow and winding, with a long stretch of dirt road as you begin to descend toward the coast. While the drive requires a bit of patience, the scenic views of mountains and sea along the way make it well worth it.

There's a small, family-run taverna right on the beach serving traditional homemade dishes, and a limited number of sunbeds are available for rent. Achata is ideal for a peaceful escape where you can swim, explore, and enjoy a relaxed seaside atmosphere.

AGIOS THEODOROS BEACH – NATURE'S SPA BY THE SEA

On the south coast of Karpathos, hidden between rocky cliffs and the endless blue of the Aegean, you'll find Agios Theodoros Beach.

The beach is peaceful, with crystal-clear water and a natural sense of calm. One of its unique features is the natural clay found in the surrounding cliffs. Locals and visitors alike use it as a kind of natural spa treatment, rub it on, let it dry under the sun, then rinse it off in the sea. Your skin will feel soft and refreshed, and you'll get a real taste of how nature takes care of you here.

And when hunger hits?

Just a short walk from the beach, a cozy, family-run taverna is waiting. They serve up simple, delicious Greek food, much of it freshly caught or grown nearby, with a view that makes everything taste even better.

SPOA AGIOS NIKOLAOS BEACH - SLOW DOWN BY THE SEA

About 45 minutes from Pigadia, this peaceful beach just below Spoa village is one of those places where everything slows down. The water is clear, the vibe is calm, and it's easy to spend a whole afternoon here without even noticing the time.

There are a few tavernas right by the sea, most of them serving fresh, local fish, often caught the same day. It's the perfect spot for a swim, some great food, and a laid-back vibe from the busier parts of the island.

CASTELIA BAY BEACH – HIDDEN AND LAID-BACK

Close to Amoopi but away from the crowds, Castelia is a quiet, sheltered bay known for its clear waters and peaceful vibe. It's a great choice for couples, solo travelers, or anyone looking to slow down and enjoy the natural surroundings. The beach is mostly rocky, with some patches of sand and smooth stone areas close to the water where you can lay out your towel.

A few sunbeds are available, but many visitors relax on the rocks or the flat, pebbly areas near the sea. The calm, clear water is ideal for swimming, snorkeling, or just floating in the sun, though it gets deep quickly, which is perfect for confident swimmers but something to keep in mind if you're visiting with children.

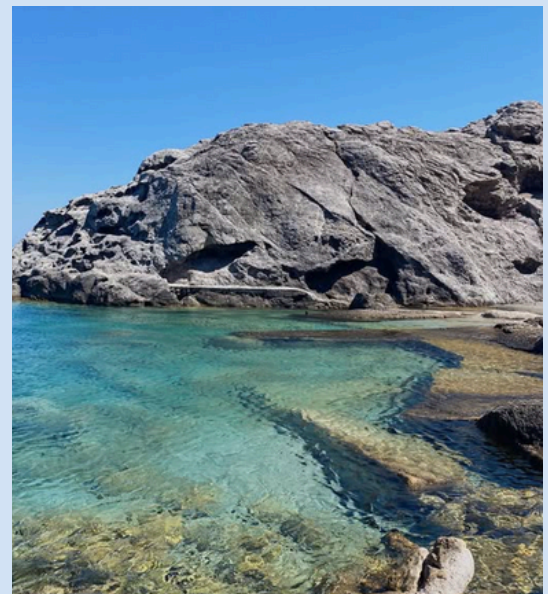

A hotel located right above the beach offers drinks and meals with a great view, and there are also a few local tavernas in the area where you can enjoy traditional Karpathan dishes. Kastelia offers a laid-back beach day with just enough comfort — and the option to explore a bit beyond the main bay.

MAKE YOUR OWN SEA SALT

Swim around the large rock on the right side of the bay to discover a quiet, hidden spot with shallow rock pools. In these pools, natural sea salt forms under the sun. You can taste a few crystals or even make your own.

It's a simple and unique experience that adds something special to your swim. You'll also find a few low rocks perfect for jumping into the clear, deep water below.

LOCAL FOOD & TAVERNAS

No visit to Karpathos is complete without indulging in its incredible food scene. Whether you're in the mood for classic Greek dishes or fresh seafood, these restaurants offer something special for every palate.

These are some of our favorite spots on the island, and we highly recommend adding them to your itinerary for a memorable culinary journey on this stunning Greek island.

TO MARIGO – TRADITIONAL TAVERNA BY THE HABOUR

To Marigo is a cozy Greek taverna with a light modern twist, located right by the waterfront in Pigadia. It's a great spot for both lunch and dinner, whether you're after a seaside view or a relaxed meal with friends.

The menu combines classic Greek dishes, Karpathan specialties, and vegetarian options, with plenty of small plates to share. Don't miss the zucchini fritters, marinated beets, and the daily specials.

ANEMOS BAR & RESTAURANT – LAID-BACK DINING IN AFIARTIS

Located in Afiartis, right in the middle of the windsurfing zone at Gun Bay, Anemos Bar & Restaurant serves a mix of Greek and international dishes. With a laid-back atmosphere and great views of the surfers on the water, it's an ideal place to unwind and enjoy a meal after a day by the sea.

Every Thursday evening from June until the end of the season, Anemos throws an outdoor BBQ party starting around 19:00, featuring grilled food, cold drinks, and music from the island's best local DJs from AOK Music. The party continues until 2:00 in the morning and is the perfect way to enjoy Karpathos' summer nightlife under the stars.

On Sundays, the restaurant features live music, so be sure to reserve a table in advance for these popular evenings.

ELLINIKON – AUTHENTIC GREEK CUISINE IN THE HEART OF PIGADIA

Located centrally in Pigadia, Ellinikon serves classic Greek dishes such as moussaka, grilled lamb, and freshly caught fish. Their stuffed zucchini flowers with rice are a must-try. The friendly staff and reasonable prices make it a local favorite, not a tourist trap, but a place where you'll feel genuinely welcome. Ask for the daily specials and enjoy a glass of local wine or Greek beer with your meal.

Picture: Phileas Guides

DELFINI – FRESH SEAFOOD IN FINIKI

If you enjoy seafood, Delfini in the fishing village of Finiki is worth the 30-minute drive from Pigadia. Located right by the water, it offers a quiet setting with views of the harbor.

The restaurant serves fresh fish and seafood, often caught the same day. The shrimp saganaki is a popular choice, and the lobster or shrimp pasta is also worth trying. Delfini is a solid option for a simple, seafood-focused meal in a local setting.

KEDROS – A HIDDEN GEM WITH SUNSET VIEWS

Located on the west coast, around 30 minutes from Pigadia, Kedros is known for its welcoming atmosphere and locally inspired cuisine.

The kitchen uses fresh ingredients from its own garden and serves a variety of grilled meats and seasonal vegetables. It's the perfect place for a slow evening dinner with a stunning view of the sunset.

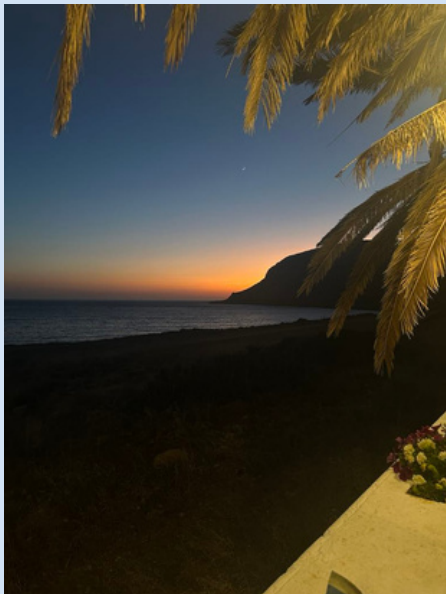

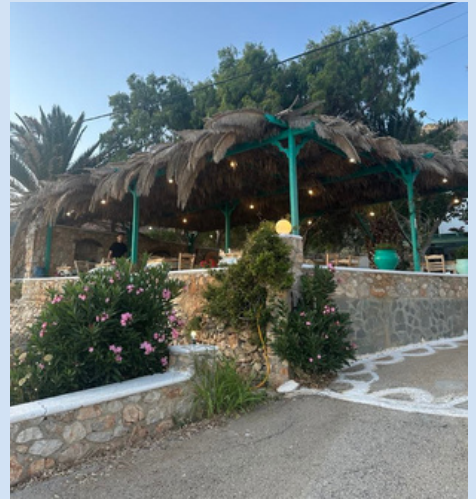

Pictures: Kedros

TAVERNA EVDOKI'S - FRESH VEGETABLES

If you're exploring the west coast of Karpathos, make sure to pay a visit to Taverna Evdokia. This cozy, family-run taverna in the quiet village of Adia.

What makes this place even more special is the view. It's one of the best spots on the west coast to watch the sunset while enjoying dinner. The golden light over the mountains and sea creates a calm, unforgettable atmosphere.

The highlight for many is their makarounes, a traditional Karpathian pasta made by hand and served with caramelized onions and grated cheese. It's simple, local food that hits the spot.

Out back, they grow their own organic vegetables, and it shows in the flavor, the salads are fresh, crunchy, and full of color. They also keep goats nearby and make their own cheese, which they grate over several dishes or order as a side dish. It's rich, creamy, and adds that perfect local touch.
